LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF A. J. SHEPHERD, HANDSHOE, KY.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS: That I, A. J. Shepherd, of Handshoe, Floyd County, Kentucky (Widower), being of full age and sound mind and memory, do make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament hereby revoking all wills by me heretofore made.

Item I. Having heretofore disposed of most of my real estate to my children and heirs. But having retained the ownership in most of this and other property. To coal, mineral, oil, gas and other products named in the various deeds and the rights and privileges to enter upon the lands and remove same and do all things necessary to the full and undivided enjoyment of the privileges. And having leased certain portions of this oil and gas to certain gas companies &c. and a number of gas and oil wells having been completed on said lands, and whenever I am receiving royalties on some and other wells being drilled on these leases from time to time. And being the owner of the royalties &c., arising from said leases &c., the purpose of this will is to dispose of these interests that I may own at the time of my death.

Item II. I direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of my personal property and money, if there be sufficient on hand, but at all events that this be paid out of my estate as soon as practicable after the time of my decease.

Item III. I give and bequeath to my six living children Tilden Shepherd Willie Shepherd, Ben Shepherd, Nellie Shepherd, Willie Bradley and Ida Hager, and their heirs and assigns, all the interest I have and can at the time of my death, in any and all coal and mineral of every kind, all the oil and gas, all the royalties arising from said mineral, coal and oil and gas and every interest of whatsoever nature connected therewith, with all the privileges and rights that I have in said property described, and that each of the six parties named and their heirs and assigns have and own one-sixth interest in same.

Signed in the presence of the witnesses whose names are hereto affixed.

This the 21 day of May, 1931.
