IN THE NAME OF ALMIGHTY GOD, AMEN:

We, Rufus Shepherd and Betty Shepherd, husband and wife, of David Floyd County, Kentucky, knowing the uncertainty of life, hereby make, publish and declare this our last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former Wills made by us.

ITEM I First we desire that after the death of either of us, that all our just debts, doctors, hospital, and funeral expense be paid in full.

ITEM II After payment of the above items, we and each of us, will and bequeath to the survivor of either of, all our property of every kind and nature, real, personal or mixed, wheresoever situate, which we or either of us may own at the time of our death.

We make this bequest for the reason that we do not have any children born to our marriage, and for that reason, especially, we desire the survivor of either of us, to take all the property of the one first departing this life, and to do with as the survivor sees fit.

ITEM III We desire that the survivor be permitted to qualify as Administrator or administratrix of the estate of the one departing this life without the execution of bond, and without making an inventory of the Estate.

We have called Edith Stratton and Eddie Merritt to witness this our last Will and Testament, and have signed same in their presence, and they have signed same in our presence and at our request, this Dec. 4th, 1956.
