

July 24, 1929.

I, the undersigned, C. B. WHEELER, do hereby will and bequeath unto Grace Wheeler, my wife, all my right, title and interest in and to the house and lot we now occupy, purchased from T. O. Burchett heirs. There is a balance due at this time on said property due Commonwealth Life Insurance Company, First National Bank of Prestonsburg, and Ballard Martin. There is a joint life policy in said Insurance Co., payable to the survivor, Mrs. Wheeler or myself and at my death this shall go as payment on said balance due on said house and lot and I hereby will and bequeath unto my said wife enough of other money or property I may own at my death to finish paying for said house and lot after deducting the said two thousand dollar policy.

This to be in lieu and stead of all dower and distributal interest she may have in my estate.

C. B. WHEELER

I also will and bequeath unto my said wife all our household and kitchen furniture of whatever kind or nature.

IN THE NAME OF GOD--AMEN- I, J. M. Porter, being of sound mind and of disposing memory, make this my last will and testament revoking all former wills. First, I desire that all of my just debts be paid out of any money in my hands at my death or the first money coming to the hands of my beloved wife Cynthia M. Porter, from my estate.

Second, I hereby will and bequeath to my beloved wife Cynthia M. Porter, all of the property both real and personal, moneys, Life Insurance and every thing of which I may die, seized including anything, chosen in action or other thing of value that my estate might become entitled to go to my said wife in fee without appraisal or valuation or any accounting whatever to any one, and hereby appointing my said wife Executrix under this Will and request and direct that she be required to give no bond, having faith that my said wife will do with said property as, to the best interest of herself and our children, and in order that there be no untangling divisions and that she may dispose of any and all of said property by deed, will or otherwise at her pleasure and in the way that she may think best this my last Will and testament is made with the prayer that God will bless and direct and care for my beloved wife and our children.

Given under my hand and signed in presence of Geo. P. Archer, and Jo. M. Davidson, who are subscribing witnesses thereto.

This February 10", 1939.

WILL

I, Kate Stephens Spradlin, of Cliff, Floyd County, Kentucky, being of sound mind and memory, realising the uncertainties of life, and having in my mind my property and the natural objects of my bounty, do hereby make, publish and declare, this instrument to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all previous wills:

In appreciation of the devotion and ministration shown me by my daughter, Sallie Spradlin, and in order to assist in sustaining her after my departure, I hereby will, devise and bequeath unto th said Sallie Spradlin, all the property, both real and personal, that I own at the time of my decease.

I do not give my other children any of my property, because I feel that they are able to care for themselves, and are situated in such ways, that their own properties or sources of income is sufficient to sustain them.

Witness my hand, this the 27th day of September, 1939.
