I, J. A. BARTLEY, Residing at Ivel, Floyd County, Kentucky, and being the owner of both real and personal property, and desiring to make disposition of same so that such property that I may die the owner of will, at my death, go to the persons I desire to have same. Do make this my last will and testament.

I will that my Executor herein named, out of any property that I may have at the time of my death, shall pay my funeral expenses and any legal obligations that may be due and payable by me.

After the payment of my debts and funeral expenses I will and devise to my beloved sons, Eugene Bartley and Bueford Bartley, all my property of every kind and nature wheresoever situated, to them, their heirs and assigns forever. In the event of the death of either of my said sons, it is my will that the interest of such one as may have deceased, shall pass to and go to the survivor of the two sons; but in the event one of my said sons shall die leaving child or children, then it is my will that such child or children, shall take such interest as its father should have taken had he been alive at the time this will takes effect.

I will my son, Forest Reed Bartley, the sum of $1.00 and to my son, Don Bartley, the sum of $1.00.

I hereby nominate D. C. Moore, my brother-in-law, as my Executor

I have heretofore purchased property and had it deeded to my beloved wife, Lou Bartley, and that she later reconveyed to me, reserving to her a lifetime interest, or estate, so long as she remains my wife or widow, and for that reason, I am not including her in this will.
