

ITEM III.

I made a gift to my daughter, Emma Marshall, consisting of a tract of land located on the Mutton Fork of Bull Creek in Floyd County, Kentucky, of the value of Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars, and I direct that the conveyance for said tract of land by me to her be considered as an advancement; and shall, by my executors, be charged against her, and she shall receive nothing from my estate until each of my other children have received from my estate the sum of Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars each.

ITEM III.

I made a similar gift to my daughter, Ruth Meade which she was required to sell because of her husband's sickness and physical condition, and for that reason I direct that said gift shall not, in any manner, be deemed as an advancement to the said Ruth Meade, or be counted, in any manner, in the settlement of my estate.

ITEM IV.

Subject to the provisions of Item II, I devise, give and bequeath all the property, both real, personal and mixed, of every kind, wheresoever situated, which I may own or have the right to dispose of, to my seven children: Julie Cooley, Emma Marshall, Mae Laddie, Ruth Meade, Otis Cooley, W. R. Cooley and Orville Cooley, but the advancement, mentioned in Item II, shall be deducted from the part of my estate devised to my daughter, Emma Marshall.

ITEM V.

I make, appoint and nominate my two sons, Otis and Orville Cooley, my joint executors of this, my last will and testament, and in the event one of my two sons dies before I do, the survivor shall exercise the powers of said office, but if they each survive me both of them shall jointly serve as the executors of my estate.

I further request that no bond be required of said executors, or either of them, and that no inventory of my estate be made.

Dated at Prestonsburg, Kentucky, this September 8,
