

SECOND: Whereas, Katie Crisp of Dwale, Kentucky has waited upon and taken care of me since September, 1951, and my children and relatives have failed or refused to take care of me or support or provide for me in any way since long before September, 1951, I will, bequeath and devise to Katie Crisp all of my property, including lands, money, personal property and all notes and choses I leave at the time of my death, after the payment of my just debts and funeral expenses as aforesaid.

THIRD: I hereby appoint Katie Crisp Executrix of this my Last Will and Testament, and request that she be not required to execute bond as such or make or file any inventory of my estate, except as may be required by law.

FOURTH: By two previous wills, one dated October 18, 1951, and one dated December 19, 1951, I bequeathed and devised all of my property, lands, money and other property to Katie Crisp and it is not intended that this will supersede or revoke said wills insofar as they are consistent with this will, as it is my desire and will that Katie Crisp have all of my property at the time of my death, she having waited upon and cared for me during my old age and will, I believe, continue to do so during my natural life-time.
