

In the name of GOD, Amen. I, Felix Irick, of Mossey Bottom, Ky., knowing the uncertainty of human life, and desiring to make disposition of my property, in my lifetime, and direct how it shall go, do make this my last will and testament:

(1) I will that all my just debts be paid.

(2) I will and bequeath to my beloved wife, Ellen Irick, all my property of every kind and description, including all money, notes, accounts, household goods, stock, and everything of value to have and to be owned in fee simple by her, and to use and dispose of as she may see fit.

(3) I will, that my beloved wife, Ellen Irick, be appointed my executor, and that she may qualify without giving bond, as a bond would be unnecessary, and unless the Court should require it, no settlement of her accounts need be made, since I give and bequeath to her all and everything of which I may own at the time of my death.

Given under my hand, this 25th day of November, 1918.

I X IRICK
