" LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF FRANK P. HALL "

In the name of God, Amen;

I, Frank P. Hall, of Weeksbury, Floyd County, Kentucky, considering the uncertainty of this mortal life, and being of sound and disposing mind and memory, blessed be God for the same, do make and publish this my last will and testament, in the manner and form as follows, that is to say:

FIRST: I direct that my burial expense, and all my debts, if any there be justly proven, be paid out of my personal cash/account at the First National Bank, Pikeville, Kentucky, and a like amount be reserved in said bank to pay the funeral expense of my beloved wife.

SECOND: I direct that a double granite stone not over three feet high above the base, of moderate cost, to mark the final resting place of my wife and myself, same to be purchased from Brother Bennett Adams, and to be erected as soon as possible after my demise.

THIRD: I give and bequeath to my beloved wife, Frankie Hall, all my money; all my personal property, my law library; all live stock; all household furniture and all bonds. Also, all my real property, home farms and lands wherever located. (Out of this property my wife shall take care, as she sees fit, of our daughter, Ora Fay)

FOURTH: There is this notation to be observed. My daughter Ola Mae, and her husband, Atha Dameron, are operating my store and for their services are to receive as compensation 75% of all profits earned through said store, and the remaining 25% is hereby given to my wife. (The banking account in the name of Frank P. Hall Store and the inventories shall govern the Store business relative to the sums each have in the store).

FIFTH: I appoint my beloved wife, Frankie Hall, Executrix, of this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me made, and direct that no inventory to be made of any of my property, except the store, and that my wife serve as such executrix without bond.

SIXTH: If my beloved wife does not consume all my property above mentioned during her lifetime, the residue thereof, I direct be equally divided among my children, share and share alike, quality and quantity to be a factor to be considered in said distribution. The Distribution shall be made by three citizens agreed upon by the children and their distribution shall be final. But if any child objects to its share of distribution set apart by the said three citizens and shall go to court as a result thereof, the said objecting child shall be excluded from inheriting herein and the property shall go and be distributed among the other children.

We, whose names are hereunto subscribed, do hereby certify that Frank P. Hall, the testator, subscribed his name to this will in our presence and in the presence of each of us, and declared at the same time in our presence and hearing that this will was his last will and testament, and we at his request, signed our names hereto in his presence as attesting witnesses.

IN THE NAME OF GOD, AMEN:

Know all Men by these presents that I, Ballard Tackett, being of Sound Mind but in Poor Health and realizing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of Death. Do hereby make, ordain and establish this, my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all former Wills or Deeds.

First. I commend and bequeath my Soul to the God who gave it to me.

Second. I will and Bequeath to Mrs. Betty Lykens, Wife of Joe Lykens of Amba, Kentucky, all of the real personal or mixed estate that I may possess, own or be legally entitled to at the time of my death, This is to include and embrace all merchandise, cash or any thing else of Value that I may have at the time of my demise.

This is to be considered as an Expression of my Deep appreciation of her many acts of kindness to me and it is my sincere and earnest desire that she shall have, hold and enjoy as her own property everything that I may have or be legally entitled to at the time of my death after all of my just debts and funeral or burial expenses have been paid. In Witness Whereof I do hereby affix my signature on this the 1st day of September 1954.

Witnesses: D. H. HATCHER
