I J. M. Davidson Clerk of the Hoyd County Court do hereby certify that an Instrument of Writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of G. W. Bentley deceased was on the 23 day of March 1908 filed in my office as shown by endorsement of J. H. Harris Clerk as shown by his endorsement on back of same which is in words and figures as follows: Filed March 23 1908 signed J. M. Harris C. C. and at said Term an order probating said Will is as follows: This day William Dingus produced in open Court an Instrument of Writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of George W Bentley deceased and the same was read in open Court by J. M. Allen one of the subscribing witnesses to the said instrument and the said J. M. Allen and J. J. Ratliff both were sworn and stated that they had signed said instrument as witnesses and attested its genuineness upon which statement the same is ordered to lay over thirty days.

State of Kentucky 3 May Term
Hoyd County Court 3 May 25 1908.

The last Will and Testament of G. W. Bentley having at a former Term of this Court been probated and ordered to lay over for exceptions for thirty days and none having been filed the said former order probating said Will is approved and confirmed in all things, and at the same Term the following orders were also made: At the regular March Term of this Court a Writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of George W Bentley deceased was produced and read in open Court by J. M. Allen and proven by him as one of the subscribing witnesses to said instrument as being the last Will and Testament of the said G. W. Bentley deceased which was attested by J. M. Allen and J. J. Ratliff the same was ordered to be filed in open Court and was also ordered to lay over thirty days and until the next regular Term of this Court for exception and this order having been overlooked and not entered at the said March Term 1908 is now ordered to be entered from forthwith. The Will of George W Bentley deceased having been before back presented and proven in open Court.

Court and having laid over for exceptions from the March term of the Court to the April term and then continued to this term and no exceptions having been filed the said Will is hereby dated and adjudged by the Court to be the last Will of said George W. Bentley Deceased and ordered and directed to be recorded in the proper record Book in the Floyd County Clerk's Office. Whereupon the same together with the above orders is duly recorded this 24th day of Feby 1909.

Mrs. Ed Bull Will.

In the Name of God, Amen. I Melvina Bull, being of sound mind and disposing memory, realizing the uncertainty of life, and the certainty of death, do make and constitute this as my and for my last Will and testament. I desire that all my just debts and funeral expenses be first paid, and that then all my estate, real and personal, be and become estate of my infant son, Henry M. Bull, Morgan R. Bull, who is now nearly fifteen months old. And I hereby give and bequeath all of my estate to my said son, the most of which estate is the undivided interest to which I am entitled from my father. I desire that my husband, Edward S. Bull be appointed the sole executor of my estate and that he use so much thereof as is necessary for the property proper comfort and education of my said baby. I desire that my said husband be viewed a proper compensation for his services and that if my baby should die before my said husband then I desire that all my said estate shall be and become the sole and separate estate of my said husband. In Witness Whereof, I, the said Melvina Bull, have to this my last Will and testament written on one sheet of paper, set my hand and seal this the 13th day of August 1909.

Melvina Bull.

Signed and acknowledged by said testator, in the presence of us, who hereto subscribe our names, in the presence of each other, and in the presence of the said testator, and at her request.
