ARTICLE IX: I will and devise to my son, John M. Sloane, the following tract or parcel of land located on the waters of Middle Creek, in Floyd County, Kentucky, bounded and described as follows:

"BEGINNING at the end of fence that comes down the hill at a drain with Oscar Sloane and Lewis Sloane line; thence up branch with Lewis Sloane line to a drain; thence up drain up hill with drain with Lewis Sloane line to a poplar tree; thence with same line up hill with straight line to a big rock marked X a straight line up hill to a marked ash with same line up the hill to a marked rock X up hill a straight line to top of hill to big rock marked X to Ellis Hale line; thence down ridge with Ellis Hale line to Josie Hale line; thence down ridge at point with Josie Hale line with fence down ridge with same line to Oscar Sloane line to a cross fence; thence down the hill with point with fence with Oscar Sloane line to a drain; thence with drain and fence to end of fence to Lewis Sloane line; thence to the place of beginning."

There is excepted and not herein devised to my said sons severally all of the oil and gas rights in the six tracts of land devised to them severally next hereinabove described. I devise and bequeath to my said six sons, Wedrow Sloane, James Sloane, Ernest Sloane, Oscar Sloane, Lewis Sloane and John M. Sloane, said oil and gas rights to be held by them jointly in co-tenancy, each one to receive his proportionate part of all rent and royalty and income therefrom.

The six tracts of land last above described are parts of a farm formerly owned by Morgan Sloane and acquired by the testator by deeds of record in the Floyd County Court Clerk's Office.

The devices above set out are subject to the following restrictions

John M. Slone, his heirs and assigns, shall not build any house or other buildings within seventy-five feet of the line of the tract devised to Lewis Slone.

Oscar Sloane, his heirs and assigns, shall not build any house or other buildings within one hundred feet of Lewis Sloane's line or Ernest Sloane's line.

The greater portion of the lands above devised lies on the Morgan Slope Branch of Middle Creek and the road across said lands leading generally from the main highway up the branch as it is now located and used is to be left open and unobstructed except for certain changes to be made by the testator in his life time. Said road is to be at least twelve feet wide, and as many as five gates may be maintained at convenient points, and as near lines between parties as possible.

If any of the devisees, my sons, above mentioned, should desire to sell the lands herein devised to him he shall give to one or more of the other devisees my said sons, the first option or refusal to purchase same, and shall not be sold or traded except to each other.

ARTICLE X: In case any money or personal property should remain as a part of my estate after the payment of my debts and funeral expenses I will and bequeath same to James Sloane and Woodrow Sloane, my two sons, share and share alike.

ARTICLE XI: I will and bequeath to my daughter, Phoebe Shepherd one Hundred Fifty Dollars ($150.00), Fifty Dollars ($50.00) thereof to be paid each year within three years after my death, and I will and bequeath to my daughter, Malissa Sloane, the sum of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) to be paid $50.00 each year within four years after my death, all of which, that is, the $150.00 bequeathed to Phoebe Shepherd and the $200.00 bequeathed to Malissa Sloane, is to be paid by my sons, to wit, Woodrow Sloane, James Sloane, Ernest Sloane, Oscar Sloane, Lewis Sloane and John M. Sloane, each one to pay an equal proportion thereof and to secure the payment of all of said amounts the said Phoebe Shepherd and Malissa Sloane shall have a lien upon the tracts of land herein devised to my said six sons, respectively, said liens shall attach and be enforced only upon the tracts devised herein, respectively, to the one or ones who fail or refuse to pay.

ARTICLE XIII: I appoint Henry C. Stebbins, Jr., of Prestonsburg, Kentucky, Executor of this my last will and request that he be permitted to qualify without bond and that he be not required to file any inventory of my estate.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I hereunto subscribe my name this the 29th day of August, 1938.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF MAGGIE SELLARDS

Prestonsburg, Kentucky

July 11, 1938

In the Name of God, Amen:

I, Maggie Sellards, of Prestonsburg, Floyd County, Kentucky.

Being of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make and publish this my last will and testament, viz:

FIRST: I give my soul to the God who gave it.

SECOND: I desire, request and direct that all my just debts be paid.
