IN THE NAME OF GOD, AMEN:

I, A. J. MOORE, of Hippo, Floyd County, Kentucky, realizing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, and being of sound mind and disposing memory and having full knowledge of the objects of my bounty, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all former wills and codicils thereto heretofore by me made.

ITEM I. I hereby direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of my estate.

ITEM II. I hereby will and bequeath to my beloved wife, Jamima Moore, all my right, title and interest in fee simple in and to the farm on which we now reside, which land is set out and described in that certain deed of conveyance, dated October 12, 1935, from Jack Hughes and Virgie Hughes, his wife, to A. J. Moore, duly recorded in Deed Book 103, Page 269, records of the Floyd County Court Clerk's Office, to which deed and record thereof reference is hereby made.

ITEM III. I hereby bequeath to my beloved wife, Jamima Moore, all property, whether real, personal or mixed, which I may die seized wheresoever situated and she is to have same in her own name and right to do with as she pleases.

ITEM IV. I hereby direct and request the Court to appoint my said wife, Jamima Moore, executrix of this will and that she not be required to execute any bond as such executrix.

I am making this will to my said beloved wife for the reason that she and I have heretofore executed deeds and advanced money to each and all of our children and the intention of this will is that my said wife shall have ample property upon my death to take care of her during the latter days of her life.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, witness my signature this 11 day of January, 1952.

A. J. MOORE

We, Lillie H. Parker and Milt Stanley, as witnesses to the foregoing will each hereby certify that we each saw the testator hereof, A. J. Moore, sign the said will in our presence and that we each signed the said will at his request and in his presence, and in the presence of each other.
