

day of March, 1934. By said will, I disposed of all of the property that I then owned, but since its execution I have inherited all of the real and personal property owned by my son, Dr. W. W. Richmond, and I have disposed of a portion thereof to my daughter, Lida Cottrell, and a portion thereof to my grandchildren, Mary Margaret Webb and Inez May Hereford, who are the surviving children of my son David G. Richmond.

In my will of March 13, 1934, I willed to my son, W. W. Richmond, who is now dead, the following property:

"One yellow bedroom suite of furniture in spare room.
one carpet in my bedroom.
all kitchen furniture and frigidaire.
one big red ar chair.
one wardrobe.
one center table in dining room.
two dining room chairs.
porch swing.
one porch rocker."

The above items of property I now will to my daughter, Lida Cottrell.

The paragraph in my original will, which reads as follows: "I will to Annie Richmond (David's widow) one small green sofa. One large picture. One outglass basket", Annie Richmond now being dead, I will these articles to Mary Margaret Webb and Inez May Hereford, share and share alike.

The remainder of the real and personal property that I inherited from my son, Dr. W. W. Richmond, and which I may own at the time of my death I devise as follows: Seven-twelfths (7/12) thereof I devise to my daughter, Lida Cottrell and five-twelfths (5/12) thereof I devise to my grandchildren, Mary Margaret Webb and Inez May Hereford, share and share alike.

If any person receiving any benefit under this will and codicil shall, directly or indirectly, resist its probate or seek in any way to contest it or vacate or annul any of its provisions, or if any person receiving any benefit under this will shall, directly or indirectly, seek in any way to question, contest, vacate, set aside or annul any conveyance or other disposition that I have made of any of my real or personal property, the person or persons so doing or for whom anyone authorized by law to act shall do so, shall forfeit all interest in my estate under this will and codicil, and my estate shall be distributed and settled as if such person or persons had died before me leaving no issue surviving him or her or them.

I hereby ratify and confirm my said will, dated the 13th day of March, 1934, in all other respects.

In witness whereof, I hereunto set my hand this 10 day of September, 1936.

STATE OF KENTUCKY,

FLOYD COUNTY. SS.

At a county Court held for Floyd County, at the Court house, in the city of Prestonsburg, Kentucky, on the 24 day of June, 1940, the foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Mary R. Richmond, deceased, late of this county with the two above codicils thereto were produced in court, and said original will was proved by the testimony of Mrs. C. F. Powers, and Grace D. Brad, the subscribing witnesses thereto and the said codicils were also proven by S. C. Ferguson and Jose Mine Hager and Ethel Moore, subscribing witnesses thereto.

Whereupon the said original will and codicils thereto were established by the court to be the last will and testament and codicils thereto of said testator and are recorded in my office as Clerk of said court, in Will Book B, Page 67 to 69.

I, J. W. BURCHETT, of Emma, Floyd County, Kentucky, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby, make, publish and declare, this my last will and testament and I do hereby cancel all other wills that I have heretofore made.

First: I will and bequeath to my daughter Maggie Detson, $1000.00, to be paid at my death by my executor.

Second: I will and bequeath to the children of my daughter, Florence Harris, the sum of $1000.00, in cash to be divided equally between them. The above amounts being all that I desire that my two daughters and their heirs receive out of my estate. I having on this date disposed of my real estate to my other children, K. S. Burchett, Lewis Burchett, and Jess Rivers, the way I desire the same to be divided.

Third: I desire that my funeral expense be paid, and any debts that I might owe, although I do not owe anything at present, then after my funeral expenses are paid, and the two daughters, Maggie Detson, and the heirs of Florence Harris, are paid, then I will and bequeath all of the remainder of my personal property that I have at my death to my two sons, Lewis Burchett, and K. S. Burchett, jointly.

I hereby make, designate and appoint my son Lewis Burchett, as my Executor of my last will and testament, without bond, and he is to carry out this my last will. He will take charge of my personal property, and pay the two daughters the $1000.00, each, and whatever is left of my personal property he is to divide the same equally between himself and K. S. Burchett.

Given under my hand, this the 14th day of November, 1939.
