LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF

LIDA RICHMOND COTTRELL

I, LIDA RICHMOND COTTRELL, of Prestonsburg, Floyd County, Kentucky, being over twenty-one years of age, of sound mind and memory, do make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills heretofore by me made.

ITEM 1. I direct that all of my just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of my estate as soon as practicable after the time of my decease.

ITEM 2. I will, devise and bequeath to my daughter, Inez C. Hobson, my brick home where I now live, which is located on the east side of First Avenue in Prestonsburg, Kentucky; also the piano, all personal property and all furnishings located in said home and my said daughter is to divide said personal property as she may see fit. Said real estate so devised to my said daughter is bounded and described as follows:

"BEGINNING on First Avenue at the intersection of First Avenue and Fourth Street and on the Northwest corner of said intersection; thence along the Northern side of Fourth Street 14.5 feet to a stake; thence on a line parallel with First Avenue 73 feet and 4 inches to the line of Susan Pelphrey; thence with Susan Pelphrey's line 14.5 feet to First Avenue; thence along First Avenue in a Southeastern direction 73 feet and 4 inches to Ford Street, the place of beginning."

Being the same property conveyed to Lida Cottrell by Isaac Richmond and Mary R. Richmond, his wife, by deed bearing date January 10, 1906 and recorded in Deed Book No. 14, Page 520, Floyd County Court Clerk's Office.

ITEM 3. I also will and bequeath to my daughter Inez C. Hobson, the cottage house located on Ford Street in the City of Prestonsburg, Floyd County, Kentucky, where Ray Stephens now lives.

The Division line between This property and the brick home property shall be a straight line running from the Ford Alley Back with the lower side of the run-way of the garage and to the back of both lots. This lot is described as follows:

"BEGINNING at the edge of the Ford Alley; thence running back a straight line with the edge of the garage run-way nearest the cottage house and a straight line on back to the back of the lot; thence across the back end of the lot to the Inez R. Hereford lot; thence with Inez R. Hereford's lot back to the Ford Alley; thence with the Ford Alley back to the beginning, so as to include the lot on which said Ray Stephens now lives."

ITEM 4. I give and bequeath to my grandson, Frederick Richmond Cottrell, the sum of One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars.

I also devise and bequeath to my grandson, Frederick Richmond Cottrell, the old Richmond home place, located on First Avenue in the City of Prestonsburg, Floyd County, Kentucky, and described as follows:

"BEGINNING at the Northwest corner of the ten foot (10') lot deeded by Mary R. Richmond to Inez C. Hobson and Joe Hobson on Main Street; thence running back in a Northwest direction, a distance of approximately one hundred and forty-eight (148') feet at the back end of said ten foot strip just above mentioned; thence with same to the old T. J. Ford property; thence back a Southwest course with the Ford lot to Main Street; thence up Main Street to the Inez C. Hobson's ten foot lot, the place of beginning."

ITEM 5. I will and bequeath to my granddaughter, Lida Margaret Bingham, the sum of One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars, my small diamond ring, my pearl beads and my wrist watch. I also give to my granddaughter, Lida Margaret Bingham, eight (8) shares of stock in the Bank Josephine, Prestonsburg, Kentucky.

ITEM 6. I will and bequeath to my grandson, Billy Cottrell, the sum of One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars, and eight (8) shares of stock in the Bank Josephine, Prestonsburg, Kentucky.

ITEM 7. I will and bequeath to my daughter, Inez C. Hobson, the remainder of my stock in the Bank Josephine, to-wit: thirty-two and one-half (32 1/2) shares; two large diamond rings and all my jewelry except that devised to my granddaughter, Lida Margaret Bingham, and I request that my daughter, Inez C. Hobson, give to Lida Margaret Bingham, by her last will and testament, one large diamond ring.
