LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF JOSEPH D. HARKINS

Being lately most strikingly reminded of the uncertainty of life and the sureness and suddenness of death, and being of sound and disposing mind and memory, I do hereby make this my Last Will and Testament.

First:- I direct that all my just debts be paid.

Second:- I direct that some portion of my property, of reasonable value, considering the value of my estate at the time of my death, be given to my Executrix hereinafter named, to my Mother and to my brother and sisters, or to such of them as are then living, as a token of love and affection for each of them. Said property to be so given shall be of like value for my said brother and each of my said sisters, and shall be selected by such Executrix from my estate. My Mother, brother and sisters, being possessed of ample property of their own, this bequest is not intended to be so much a financial one as a memento of and token of love and affection for them and each of them.

Third:- All the remainder of my estate, of every kind and nature, real, personal and mixed, I give, devise, and bequeath to my wife, Reba B. Harkins, and to our children, to each in fee simple and in equal portions, share and share alike. Said property so devised and bequeathed to my said children and each of them shall be held by my said wife, Reba B. Harkins, as Trustee for each of said children, respectively, until such time as said children, respectively, arrive at the age of twenty one years. Said Trustee is given full power and authority to sell, lease, convey, assign, transfer or otherwise dispose of any or all of said property so held in trust for said infants, as in her judgment may be for the best interest of said children and each of them, the proceeds thereof to be held under the same trusts, and to invest the proceeds of any sale, conveyance, assignment, transfer or lease of any property in any other property or properties, if she desires, as in her judgment may be proper, as well as to invest the income arising from my said estate so held by her as Trustee aforesaid, and to further sell and invest, and resell and reinvest the proceeds arising from any and all property or properties, whether as income or otherwise, as in her judgment is for the best interest of said children, always holding the said proceeds under the same trusts. It is my purpose and intention hereby to invest my said wife with the full power and authority to sell, lease, transfer, assign or convey any or all of said properties, which are hereby devised and bequeathed to said infants, and to reinvest the proceeds or income of the same, if she desires, and from time to time to sell or otherwise dispose of any or all of said properties in such manner as may, in her judgment, be for the best interest of said children. In so doing, she is given full power and authority to sell dividend or non-dividend paying stocks without the intervention of a court or equity upon any question relative to my estate. It is my purpose and intention to so invest my said wife with full power of sale and investment, resale and reinvestment, so that she may be free at any and all times to so manage and dispose of said properties in such manner as in her judgment is best suited for the said children. As each of said children arrives at the age of twenty one years, the portion of my estate devised and bequeathed to such child, whether as it exists at the time of my death, or as reinvested, shall be paid over to such child. My said wife shall not be held responsible or accountable for any loss arising from or out of her management of said estate, or for errors of judgment incident to such management.

Fourth:- The larger portion of the real estate of which I am now possessed having been inherited by me from my Father, and owning such real estate jointly with my brother and sisters, and realizing that such real estate is of such nature that it is of most value when kept as a whole, it is my wish and desire that my said Executrix, in the management of said real estate so jointly held, consult with and act in conjunction with my brother and sisters in the leasing or sale of the same, so that said real estate may be rendered most profitable and productive for my said wife and our children.

Fifth:- I hereby appoint my wife, Reba B. Harkins, as my sole Executrix and as Trustee for my children upon the trusts hereinbefore set out; and request that she be permitted to qualify as such without the execution of any bond, and that she not be required to file any inventory or appraisal of my estate, or to make any settlement with the court or courts, as such Executrix or as such Trustee, at any time.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have executed the foregoing instrument, this third day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty.
