

June the 23 1904

I James Howell knowing the Futility of life and the certainty of death being of sound mind & best shall on body do hereby make my last will and testament

I hereby bequeath to my wife Jane Howell all my land to have and to hold her life time or as long as she remains my widow with full right to sell all the white oak chestnut oak timber from the size of 18 in. and up board timber excepted the proceeds after my debts are paid to go to the benefit of my widow and Ellen Wolfe and my daughter Virginia Howell I also give to my wife all of my personal property & all at the death of my wife that my real estate be equally divided with all my heirs

Witness

J. M. Howell

James^{his} Howell
mark

Witness Frank Parsons

June the 29

Ordinance I want to change the above will so as to mean that my real estate be divided amongst my wife and heirs when my daughter Virginia becomes 21 years of age

Witness

James^{his} Howell
mark

Witness Parsons

R. J. Crabtree

State of Kentucky } March term Circuit Court } " 29" 1905

An instrument of writing purporting to be the last will & testament of James Howell and bearing date on Oct 24-1904 shown in open court and ordered to be proved it is now shown that said writing is fabricated and admitted to be so as the last will and testament of the said decedent which is now gone

at Malomhall agree

This August the 22 1904 In the name of God amen I James Battell being of sound mind and body make this my last will and testament.

First: after the payment of my just debts and burial expenses I will and bequeath to my wife Margaret Battell the residence where I now live the potato patch by the kitchen the meadow garden barn and barn lot all the fruit for my or her use.

2. Second, I will and bequeath to John Battell Beginning at the mouth of a stream opposite E. S. Laynes house thence a straight line up the hill to a forked place thence a straight line to the top of the ridge beginning at stake below Laynes house marked No. 1 thence a straight line to a persimmon tree on a point thence a straight line on the top of the ridge.

3. Third I will and bequeath to E. H. Battell Beginning at the mouth of a stream below the old splash dam thence up said stream to a forked tree thence up the point to the top of the ridge thence from corner No. 1 up Nelson Creek to the mouth of a stream just below the John Laynes house thence up said stream to fork above the farm thence up the right hand fork to the top of the ridge including both sides of the fork up to No. 1.

4. I will and bequeath to Wesley Battell Children at the mouth of the first stream above the Duphollow thence running up said stream to the top of the ridge thence with said ridge to Lot No. 2 beginning at the mouth of the above stream thence down Nelson Creek to the mouth of a coal bank thence a straight line up the hill to the top of the point thence up the point to Lot No. 2 thence from the coal bank across Nelson Creek thence with a stream to a hickory and Spruce thence a straight line to the top of the ridge thence up said ridge to Lot No. 2

5. I will and bequeath to S. C. Battell Beginning on Lot No. 3 at the coal bank thence down Nelson Creek to the old coal bank thence a straight line up