Page 2. James Mc Kay, of the Fourteenth ward of the city of Pittsburgh, in the County of Allegheny, and State of Pennsylvania, being of sound mind, memory and understanding do make, publish, and declare the following, as and for my last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void any and all wills by me at any time heretofore made Article 1. I will and direct that as soon as practicable after my death my entire estate, with the exception of the personal property given and bequeathed to my wife Anna Eliza McKay, by Article III hereof, shall be duly and thoroughly inventoried and appraised by two appraisers to be appointed by my executors named, as such will probably not need the information and to others interested my executors shall furnish copies thereof on request it is my wish that said inventory and appraisement shall not be filed with the Register of wills unless the filing thereof shall become legally necessary. Article 2. I will and direct that, immediately after the probate of my will and the granting of letters testamentary thereon, my executors shall pay to my wife Anna Eliza McKay the sum of five thousand ($5,000) dollars in cash this payment is to be in addition to and entirely separate from any other provision hereinafter made for her. Article III. I give and bequeath to my wife Anna Eliza McKay absolutely all my furniture, books, plate pictures wearing apparel jewelry, horses, carriages harnesses, supplies and personal effects and in general all personal property that may be in or about my residence that is to say my dwelling stable, out buildings or grounds. This property shall not be inventoried or appraised. Article IV. I give and devise to my wife Anna Eliza McKay for and during the term of her natural life the real estate, to wit dwelling stable and land appurtenant thereto upon which I now reside, situated in the Fourteenth ward of the said city of Pittsburgh, located at the corner of Anderson Avenue and the Pennsylvania Railroad, and comprising all the real estate owned by me in the block bounded by Centre Avenue, Woodward Avenue, Bayard Street, Anderson Avenue and the Pennsylvania Railroad. I hereby authorize and empower my said wife at any time to sell and convey the whole of said real estate, or any part thereof, in fee simple at either public or private sale and at such price and upon such terms as to her shall seem meet, without any liability on the part of the purchaser to see to the application of the purchase money. It is my will however that my said wife shall not exercise this power except with the consent of the trustees of the residuary estate hereinafter named or a majority of them, out of the proceeds of such sale or sales, if made, I give and bequeath to my wife the sum of one hundred thousand ($100,000) dollars to be invested by her in the purchase of another home for herself, or otherwise as she may deem best, she to have the right to use and dispose of the same free from any control by the trustees named herein and the title to any real estate purchased by her therewith to be in fee simple in herself. Any proceeds of such sale or sales if made over and above said amount of one hundred thousand ($100,000) dollars shall be delivered by my said wife to the trustees of my residuary estate hereinafter named and shall be invested by said trustees and the income thereof paid to my said wife during her lifetime and upon her decease the principal of said fund shall fall into and become a part of my residuary estate hereinafter. I bequeath and devise to said trustees, Article V. In the event of my not having in my lifetime improved my burial lot in some good cemetery in the city of Pittsburgh, or not having such improvements fully completed, I give and bequeath to my executors hereinafter named the sum of fifteen thousand $15,000 dollars to be expended for that purpose by my said executors in such manner as my wife Anna Eliza McKay shall direct my said wife to have full charge of such improvements should said improvements not have been made or completed prior to the death of my said wife, then my said executors shall have full charge of the making or completion of said improvements and shall expend said amount, or the unexpended portion thereof, or so much thereof as may be necessary in doing said work. In case the whole of said sum of fifteen thousand ($15,000) dollars should not be expended in the payment for improvements as aforesaid, I direct my said executors to pay to the trustees of my residuary estate hereinafter named any balance that may remain unexpended, so that the same shall fall into and become part of the said residuary estate hereinafter bequeathed and devised to them, Article VI. I give and bequeath to my sister Matilda Hamilton if she be alive at the time of my death, the sum of two thousand ($2,000) dollars, should she not be alive, I will and direct that said amount shall be divided among her children share and share alike, I give and bequeath to my sister Elizabeth if she be alive at the time of my death the sum of two thousand ($2,000) dollars, should she not be alive, I will and direct that said amount shall be divided among her children share and share alike, I direct my executors to pay the collateral inheritance tax on these legacies, so that they shall not be reduced or abate by reason thereof. Should there be no person or persons to take either of said legacies, the same shall thereupon become a part of my residuary estate, and shall be paid to the trustees thereof, and be disposed of in the manner provided concerning said residuary estate. Article VII. I give and bequeath the sum of five hundred ($500) dollars to John Barclay who now resides on Liberty Avenue, Pittsburgh, in appreciation of faithful services rendered by him. This amount to be paid to him free from the payment of any collateral inheritance tax thereon, such tax to be paid by my executors. Article VIII. I give and bequeath the sum of ten thousand ($10,000) dollars to be paid in cash to my daughter Eliza Watson. I will this bequest is in addition to and entirely separate from any other provisions made for her herein. Article IX. I give and bequeath the sum of one hundred and twenty thousand ($120,000) dollars to my wife Anna Eliza McKay, my son Robert J. McKay and my son J. Stuart McKay, to their survivors, their successors or successors and their heirs and assigns in trust nevertheless for the following uses and purposes, that is to say: Thirty thousand ($30,000) dollars thereof, in trust for my daughter Anna Eliza Watson during her life, thirty thousand ($30,000) dollars thereof in trust for my daughter Carrie Isabelle Irving during her life, thirty thousand ($30,000) dollars thereof in trust for my daughter Alice Blanche McKay, and thirty thousand ($30,000)

dollars thereof in trust for my daughter Edna Margaret McKay, said sums respectively to be invested in good securities and the net income thereof paid to my said daughters respectively quarterly during their natural lives. It is my desire that said sums of money should be used primarily as a fund to purchase and procure a home or dwellings for each of my said daughters, and I direct said trustees, at any time that either of my said daughters should desire to have such a home purchased for her, to invest the whole, or so much as may be necessary of the respective sums so held in trust for each of my said daughters in the purchase of such home, as she may designate, taking the title thereof in the name of said trustees, and I authorize and empower said trustees at any time, on the request of any of my said daughters, to sell the house which may have been so purchased and in the same manner, at the request of such daughter, purchase another home in lieu thereof, taking the title in the same manner and with the same power of sale and my said respective daughters shall each possess, occupy or enjoy the terms of each of their natural lives, upon the death of each of each of my said daughters the said trust shall terminate as to the property so held for them, and the said real estate so owned in trust for them, at that time, or any money held in trust for them hereunder shall immediately vest in and be conveyed to or delivered over to their lawful issue who may be living at the time of their death, and in default of such lawful issue to their next of kin. It is further my will as to this trust that if I present a home or dwelling to any of my said daughters during my lifetime, then and in such event the amount given and bequeathed to the trustees herein shall be decreased by the amount given in trust for such daughter, and every daughter so provided with a home or dwelling by me during my lifetime as aforesaid, and such daughter or daughters having been so provided for shall not receive any benefit under or by reason of the provisions of this article, and I direct that the sums or sums which would have otherwise been paid to said trustees thereunder shall be paid to the trustees of my residuary estate, and shall fall into and become part of the residuary estate for disposal in the manner provided concerning said residuary estate. Article X. I give and bequeath the sum of five thousand ($5,000) dollars unto my wife, Anna Eliza McKay, my son Robert J. McKay and my son J. Stuart McKay their survivors or survivors and their successors or successors in trust monies remaining for my grandson James McKay living the said sum of $, together with the net income arising therefrom to be received and reinvested in good securities until my said grandson shall have reached the age of twenty-one (21) years, at which time the whole of said principal sum together with the accumulated net income arising therefrom shall be paid over to my said grandson free and discharged from any trust whatsoever. If however in the judgment of my three trustees for any reason the fund so accumulated should not be immediately paid over to my said grandson at the time specified the said trustees shall have power in their discretion to continue said trust in the same manner until my said grandson shall have reached the age of twenty-five (25) years, at which time the said fund shall be paid over to my said grandson free from the trust. My said trustees shall have the power also in their discretion after my said grandson has reached the age of twenty-one (21) years to pay over to my said grandson such sums from time to time out of income thereafter accruing as they may deem necessary or proper. Should my said grandson not live to the age of twenty-one (21) years, I direct that the said principal sum and accumulated interest thereon shall at his death be paid over to the trustees of my residuary estate and shall fall into and become part of my residuary estate for disposal in the manner provided concerning said residuary estate.

Article Xth I give and bequeath the sum of forty thousand ($40,000) dollars to my wife, Anna Eliza McKay, my son Robert J. McKay and my son, J. Albert McKay their survivors or survivors and their successors or successors in trust nevertheless for the uses and purposes following that is to say.

Section 1. Said trustees shall hold invest and reinvest the said amount or any balance remaining after pay rents thereout as provided for in section 2 of this article in good securities.

Section 2. During the continuance of the trust hereby created said trustees shall pay over the net income arising from the principal of said fund quarterly to the same persons and in the same proportions as provided for the payment of the net income residuary estate by the terms and conditions of Article Xth of this will.

Section 3. Immediately upon the marriage of any of my grand children living said by my said trustees to pay out of the principal of said fund to each of said granddaughters the sum of five thousand ($5,000) dollars in each provided however that the marriage so contracted shall be a suitable one in the judgment of said trustees.

Section 4. Immediately after the purposes for which this trust is created shall have been accomplished any and all monies remaining in said fund shall be paid over to the trustees of my residuary estate and shall fall into and become part of said residuary estate for disposal in the manner provided concerning said residuary estate. Article XII. I give, devise and bequeath all the real and personal of my estate real, personal and mixed, and wherever the same may be situated at the time of my death unto my wife, Anna Eliza McKay, my son Robert J. McKay and my son J. Albert McKay whom I also appoint as my trustees and assignors in trust nevertheless for the uses and purposes following that is to say: In trust to hold manage sell, invest and reinvest the same as an undivided property for and during the natural lives of all my children and grandchildren of any who shall be living at the date of my death and of the survivors or survivor of all of said children and grandchildren and for and during the further period of twenty-one years next ensuing after the death of the survivors of all said children and grandchildren.

Section 1. During the continuance of said trust said trustees shall pay the net income arising therefrom quarterly to my wife and my children and grandchildren or other blood descendants for and during their respective natural lives in the following manner: The said income shall be divided into so many equal shares as there shall be children of mine surviving me counting as one each in using the number of shares the lawful issue of any deceased child of mine plus three (3) shares for my wife (for example my present living children being eight if they should be living at my death and my wife also survives me, there will be eleven shares) and three (3) of said equal shares shall be paid to my wife during her natural life and one (1) of said equal shares shall be paid to each one of my children who shall survive me for and during his or her natural life, and from and after his or her death to his or her lawful issue then living if any for and during their respective natural lives to be equally divided among them if more than one in number and in equal degree and by representation of parents if in unequal degree and from and after their death respectively to their respective lawful issue then living if any for and during their respective natural lives the parents share to be equally divided among them if more than one in number and in equal degree and by representation of parents if in unequal degree and so on to my blood descendants in succession for and during their natural lives respectively during the continuance of the heirs of my child of mine shall have died before we have issue living at my death the share which such deceased child of mine would have been entitled to receive if living at the date of my death shall be paid to such issue for and during their respective natural lives, the same to be equally divided among them if more than one in number and in equal degree and by representation of parents if in unequal degree and from and after their death respectively to their respective issue, the parents shall be equally divided among them if more than one in number and in equal degree and by representation of parents if in unequal degree and from to my lineal descendants in successive for and during their natural lives respectively, during the continuance of this trust. If any child of mine ^{shall be} living at the date of my death shall afterwards die leaving no lawful issue living at his or her death the equal share which such child was entitled to receive during his or her life shall thereafter be proportionately divided among and added to the respective amounts payable under the terms hereof to my then surviving children, grandchildren or other lineal descendants in like manner as if the original number of shares had been one less than it actually was. If any grandchild or grandchild or any other or more remote descendants of mine shall die leaving no lawful issue living at his or her death the share which he or she was so entitled to receive during his or her life shall be proportionately divided among and added to the respective amounts payable under the terms hereof to the other beneficiaries who are herein designated as such by reason of descent from his or her deceased parent or should there be no such then to those who are herein designated as beneficiaries by reason of descent from his or her deceased grand parent or next nearest deceased common ancestor. In case my wife should have died prior to my decease or if living at the date of my death shall afterwards die the three shares which my wife was entitled to receive during her life shall thereafter be proportionately divided among and added the respective amounts payable under the terms hereof to my then surviving children, grandchildren or other lineal descendants in like manner as if the original number of shares had been three less than it actually was. Any sums payable hereunder to my daughters or granddaughters shall be for their own use and benefit and with respect to those of whom we are of age their separate receipts to said trustees shall be a full acquittance for payment. The trustees are further authorized and directed to take such measures as to them shall seem fit and necessary to come to my daughters and granddaughters the strict possession and sole right to use of the quarterly distribution of payments. It is further my will that no sums payable by said trustees under the provisions of this trust or of the other trust created by this will shall be pledged, assigned, transferred, sold or in any manner whatsoever anticipated, charged or encumbered by the beneficiaries or any of them nor be in any manner liable in the hands of said trustees for the debts, contracts or engagements of the beneficiaries or of any of them.

Section 2. At the end of the period hereinbefore defined, or the continuance of the trust, or at the expiration of the full term or period of twenty five (25) years from and after my decease, if said period of twenty five (25) years shall have elapsed prior to the period hereinbefore defined (it being my will that this trust shall terminate at a period not later than twenty five years after my decease) I direct all the corpus or principal of said estate then remaining in the hands of my said trustees to be paid over conveyed or assigned by said trustees to be paid over conveyed or assigned quarterly payment or distribution or as soon there after as practicable to the beneficiaries then entitled to receive payment of the funds arising from such trust and in the same respective proportions and subject to the provisions hereinbefore made respecting the ordinary quarterly payments.

Section 3. I authorize and empower the said trustees during the continuance of said trust to sell convey assign and dispose of the whole or any part or portion of said trust property, real, personal or mixed, at either public or private sale and upon such terms and for such price as to them shall seem best, to mortgage the same and make all necessary deeds, mortgages, conveyances, leases, assignments, etc. or transfers thereof and to invest and reinvest the proceeds of any and all such sales or any cash that may be received or held by them from time to time in such real or personal property or real or personal securities or the improvement or betterment of real estate sold by them in such manner as to them shall seem best, and from time to time in like manner and with like power, to sell and dispose of any property or securities in which said estate or any part thereof may be from time to time invested and reinvest the proceeds as above provided and without any liability on the part of the purchaser or purchasers to see to the application of the purchase money or any part thereof, and in like manner at the end of the period hereinbefore defined for the continuance of the trust to sell and convert the whole or any part of said property for the purpose of distribution amongst the beneficiaries who may be then entitled thereto, while I have authorized and empowered my trustees to sell and convert and invest and reinvest the corpus of this trust estate in such manner as they deem best without any liability or duty upon the part of any purchaser or purchasers to look to the application of the purchase money, it is my will that as between the trustees and the beneficiaries said trustees shall not make any single sale of any property or any single investment of money coming into their hands which shall exceed an amount or value the sum of fifty thousand (50,000) dollars without first obtaining the consent in writing of one-half of the whole number of then existing shares. No example during the period when the income is divided into eleven shares each of said shares shall have one voice or vote & six of said shares must unite in the request to said trustees. In case any one of said shares at any time should be vested in more than one person a majority of those interested in the share may sign the request and any lawfully constituted guardian, trustee or committee may sign the request on behalf of his ward or testator's trust.

Section 4. In all matters respecting the management of the trust a majority of the trustees or their duly constituted successors shall have full power to act and they shall have power to constitute and appoint from time to time an attorney or attorneys under them to execute deeds, recognitions or transfers, to vote at corporate meetings, to execute release and acquittances, to sign checks, drafts or negotiable instruments and generally to perform any and all ministerial acts.

Section 5. It is my will that the number of trustees be always kept at three (3) and in case of death, resignation removal or declaration of any of the three whom I have named, then the others if two or the other if only one, accepting or remaining shall by written duly executed acknowledged and recorded in the Register's and Recorder's Office of Allegheny County, and whenever if necessary, appoint a trustee or trustees to fill the vacancy or vacancies and in like manner during the continuance of said trust any vacancy or vacancies occurring shall be filled by the trustees or trustee surviving or remaining and any trustee or trustees so appointed shall be vested with full powers and shall perform all the duties pertaining to said trust as if herein specifically appointed by name. While I have directed that the number be kept at three I do not mean to necessitate the act or acts of a less number which it may be necessary to do and perform before vacancies can be conveniently or properly filled. In case at any time there should be a vacancy in the trusteeship and the two surviving trustees cannot agree upon the appointment to fill the vacancy or in case they or any single surviving trustee should not wish in a reasonable time to fill the vacancy or vacancies by appointment or in case, through any contingency there should be no trustee I direct that a trustee or trustees shall be appointed to fill the vacancy or vacancies by the Court of Allegheny County then having jurisdiction of testamentary trust. It is my will that whither the trustees named by me or those appointed to fill any vacancy or vacancies shall be required to give bonds for the faithful performance of their duties.

Section 6. I direct that my trustees shall receive no compensation for their services and reimbursements for the ordinary expense of executing the several trusts the sum of five per cent (5%) of all income received from the trust estate from time to time. This sum is to cover all the expenses of management of the trust, except counsel fees, commissions to brokers on sales or any extraordinary expenditures that may be necessary.
