

In the name of God, Amen. I Jonah Webb, of the County of Floyd and State of Kentucky, being of sound mind and disposing memory do make and publish this my last will and testament First: I will and bequeath to my six (6) children born of my first marriage and to their representatives where they have died as follows My son T. J. Webb, Solomon B. Webb, Jones Wesley Webb, Betshesba Dingus, wife of D. C. Dingus, Adam B. Webb's legal heirs, he being dead, and to the legal heirs and representatives of Elizabeth Martin, who married Elkana Martin, all of the Bank stock which I may own and hold in the first national Bank of Orestonsburg Kentucky At the time of my death, that is to say I will and bequeath to my children, T. J. Webb, Solomon B. Webb, Jones Wesley Webb, Betshesba Dingus, wife of D. C. Dingus, Adam B. Webb's heirs he being dead and to the legal heirs and representatives of Elizabeth Martin, who married Elkana Martin, each one-part of said Bank stock.

Second, I further will and bequeath to my beloved wife, Jennema J. Webb, the entire remaining estate whether personal, real or mixed of which I may die the owner, to have, own and possess by her to be used, disposed of and controlled as she may see fit and proper. In witness whereof I have hereunto signed my name and acknowledged this instrument to be the final disposition of all my worldly estate this the 9th day of November 1911.

Witness

E. V. Hall

D. R. Hopkins

Jonah Webb

State of Kentucky }
Floyd County } 3rd

I J. B. Johns Clerk of the Floyd County Court do hereby certify that the foregoing Will of Jonah Webb was on the 28th day of July 1919 produced filed and probated in open Court on a regular County Court day and ordered to be transmitted to the Clerk of the Floyd County Court for record by the Judge of said Floyd County Court which is now done accordingly

Witness my hand this 20th day of August 1919.

J. B. Johns Clerk
By J. N. Harris D. C.