In the name of God amen I David Eli. I do make this my last will and testament with my hand I desire that my body be decently buried. And also that I do not die. I desire that all my property both real and personal go to my wife and children in equal portions. My wife retaining her one third part and in which I now live. I hereby appoint my son the Executor of this my last will and testament and do hereby empower him to sell and convey my real estate in the town of Preston New York in full of my debt. And also the proceeds in support and more suitable part of and as a home for my family and make the title to my children my wife retaining her one third in full and so long as she lives. I also desire that my said Executor pay out of the proceeds of the sale in New York all my just debts the said Executor then to pay out the Contract for the sale of my land which I have already made and deliver the title in the present as the Contract price. The said Executor may assign and convey the premises and his wife with all the contents of a house as my Executor given under my hand this the 5th day of May 1893
