

The Commonwealth of Kentucky,
County of Floyd,

I, Lucy Hall, of the County of Floyd, Kentucky, being over the age of twenty one years of age and of sound mind and memory make this my last will and testament, I hereby give devise and bequeath to my husband W. P. Hall, $5.00 (Five dollars) I give devise and bequeath that remaining of all my property both personal and real to my ten heirs. I give and equal proportion to each of my children, and I hereby appoint, my son Dr. John P. Hall, of Lexington Kentucky, Executor of this will.

In Testimony whereof I have signed published and declared this instrument as my last will and testament in said County and State aforesaid.

This 5th day of September, 1919.

Lucy Hall
Witness, Bee Turner,
Witness H. J. Turner.

Orders Floyd County Court, Regular November Term November 26, 1919.
An instrument of writing was this day produced in open Court and upon proof heard in open Court was established as a last will and testament of Lucy Hall, deceased, and said instrument is now ordered to lay over 30 days for exceptions.

Orders Floyd County Court,

Regular December Term December 4, 1923.

The will of Lucy Hall, having heretofore been duly proven in open Court and established as the last will and testament of decedent and having been ordered to lay over the proper time for exceptions and none having been taken so filed thereto it is now ordered by the Court that said will be admitted to record in the Floyd County Court Clerk's,

which is now done according to Witness my hand as Clerk of Floyd County Court
this January 1st 1924

J. H. Hatcher
Clerk

Orders Floyd County Court
Regular June Term June 23, 1924.

In the matter of Will of Hiram Calhoun, deceased.

An instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Hiram Calhoun deceased and the execution of same having been duly proven in open Court by the oath of ~~attesting~~ ^{testator} witnesses to said instrument and the same having laid over the required time by law for exceptions, and none having been taken or had.

It is now ordered by the Court that said will be established as the last will and testament of Hiram Calhoun, deceased, and be admitted to record as such.

Will of Rev. Hiram Calhoun,

I, Hiram Calhoun of Prestonsburg, County of Floyd, and State of Kentucky, being of full age and of sound mind and memory, do hereby make declare and publish this to be my last will and testament, revoking all wills and testaments heretofore made by me. First, I devise unto my son Charlie Calhoun the following described real estate, situated in Floyd County, Ky, and lying on the waters of Bull Creek and bounded as follows:

beginning at the F. O. Hopkins line at the branch and running with the branch to the line of G. J. Wright, thence up the ridge with said G. J. Wright's line in a north westerly course to the top of the hill, thence down the ridge with Joe Wallace's line to the beginning.