

I, Mary Hall, of Beaver Floyd County, and State of Kentucky, being of full age and of sound mind and memory, do make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills by me heretofore made.

Item 1. I direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of my estate as soon as practicable after the time of my decease.

Item 2. All the property, real, and personal of every kind and description, wheresoever situate, which I may own or have the right to dispose of at the time of my decease, I give, bequeath and devise to my husband, J. M. Hall, absolutely and in fee simple.

Item 3. I make, nominate, and appoint my husband, J. M. Hall, to be the executor of this, my last will and testament, and I request that no bond be required of him as such. I further request that no inventory of my estate be made or taken in so far as the same may be lawfully omitted.

Dated at Beaver, Kentucky, this 21 day of June, A.D. 1933.

LAST WILL

WILLIAM DINGUS & POLKIE L. DINGUS 32

First Avenue

Prestonsburg, Floyd County, Kentucky

We, WILLIAM DINGUS Sr. and POLKIE L. DINGUS of 32 First Avenue Prestonsburg, Floyd County, Kentucky, being of sound mind and memory, do make, publish and declare, this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills by us heretofore made.

First We hereby direct that all our just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of our estate as soon as possible after the time of our deaths and that this will be not probated until both of our deaths. And the one living is to have and own and possess all our property, real, personal and mixed of every kind and description wheresoever situated, which is owned by either of us, or which we or either of us have the right to dispose of at the time of our deaths, both of us, with the right and power to sell and convey the same.

Second We, will, bequeath and devise the home, house and lot where we now live with all our household furniture and household goods to our daughters, Grace D Ford of Prestonsburg, Ky., and our daughter, Sallie D Newman of Beech Hill, West Va., jointly for life only, and at the time of both their deaths to descend as herein after stated in paragraph No 4 in this will.
