LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT
OF
MRS. ORA HOPSON HAGANS HUNT

I, Mrs. Ora Hopson Hagans Hunt, of Prestonsburg, Floyd County, Kentucky, being of sound mind and memory, of lawful age, and realizing the uncertainties of life, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be my last Will and Testament:

ITEM I. I desire that all of my just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of my estate as soon as practicable after my death;

ITEM II. I give and devise the house and lot owned by me on Riverside Avenue, Prestonsburg, Kentucky, and adjoining the property of Richard Peller & wife and J. H. Munnerly, to my children, each to share alike, a 1/8 undivided interest to each of the following: Effie Hopkins, Flossie Wines, Sallie Griffith, Douglas May, Mary Ruth Williams, and Raymond Hopson.

ITEM III. Should my husband, Roland Hunt, claim courtesy rights in the house and lot mentioned in Item II above, it is my will and wish that he may elect in lieu thereof to resolve the sum of One Hundred ($100.00) and Twenty Dollars, which sum I believe to be a fair figure for his life estate in OneThird of the said property, considering his present age and the fair cash market value of the property. The said sum shall be paid to him, in the event of his said election, by the children.

ITEM IV. All of the personal property that may own at the time of my death, I hereby give and bequeath to my daughter, Mary Ruth Williams.

Dead, signed, acknowledged, and executed in my home in Prestonsburg, Floyd County, Kentucky, this the 26th, day of January, 1939, in the presence of Alex H. Spradlin and Martin L. May by Alex H. Spradlin, one of the witnesses, signing my name for me by my authority and in my presence and in the presence of Martin L. May, and me making my mark.
