LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

of Cynthia B. Nunnery

I, Cynthia B. Nunnery being of sound and disposing mind do hereby declare this to be my last will and testament, revoking all other wills or codicils heretofore made by me, to wit:

I I direct that all my debts and funeral expenses be paid by my executor, hereinafter named.

II I direct and do hereby give, devise and bequeath to my daughter Nancy Nunnery James, wife of John W. James, all property, both real and personal, which I may own at my death.

III I hereby appoint John W. James of Allen Ky. sole executor of this will and I direct that he be permitted to qualify as such without the execution of any bond and that he not be required to have an inventory made of this, my estate.

Witness my signature this the 14th day of January 1955.

IN THE NAME OF GOD, AMEN

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

That I, Ora May Layne, of Prestonsburg, Kentucky, being of sound mind and disposing memory, and realizing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all wills and codicils thereto heretofore by me made.

I. I hereby request and direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be first paid out of any estate or property left by me.

II. I hereby give and bequeath to my beloved husband, Roe Layne, all of the property, both real and personal, whosoever situate which I may own at the time of my death, and particularly I will and bequeath to my said husband, Roe Layne, the house and lot which I now own in the City of Prestonsburg, Kentucky, which property is set out and described in that certain deed of conveyance from Roe Layne to me, dated August 31, 1926, and recorded in Deed Book No. 72, Page 494, records of the Floyd County Court Clerk's Office, and more particularly described as follows:

One certain house and lot, located in the Hopkins Addition to the town of Prestonsburg, Floyd County, Kentucky, at the end of short street extending from back street between the property now owned by John Hughes and the property owned by William Blackburn, beginning upon the line of said Short Street at the Northeast corner of John Hughes lot; thence with the line of the John Hughes lot and the property herein described a southerly course about 97 feet to the line of Isaac Richmond; thence an easterly course up the hill 92 feet; thence a northerly course down the hill with the fence 191 feet to a corner; thence a southwesterly course with the fence 113 feet to the William Blackburn line; thence with William Blackburn's line and the line of said property herein conveyed a southerly course and crossing said Short Street 79 feet to a corner; thence with the line between said Short Street and said property herein conveyed 19 feet to the corner, the place of beginning.

I do this because the said Roe Layne purchased said property and made the improvements thereon out of his own individual funds and by his own efforts and further because of my love and respect for him as my husband.

III. I hereby request and direct the said Roe Layne be appointed executor under the provisions of this will and that no bond be required of him by the court.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, witness my signature this the 12 day of May, 1941.

ORA MAY LAYNE
TESTATOR

Signed by the testator, Ora May Layne, in our presence and the undersigned witnesses signed same in her presence and in the presence of each other.

T. J. MAY

JOHN S. SPEARS
WITNESSES.
