

I Charles Stone of the County of Floyd and State of Ky being of sound mind and memory I make publish and declare this to be my last will and testament to wit: all my just debts and funeral expenses shall be fully paid out of my personal property.

2nd I will my last wife Margaret Stone one dollar and bring her whole interest in my real estate and personal property.

3rd I will my daughter Rebecca Stockworth a piece of land at the upper end of my farm on the left hand side of the creek beginning as follows - beginning on a rock on the field near the mouth of a basin at the foot of the hill thence with the drain ditch line to the top of the hill thence with my back line down the point to the creek thence with the creek down opposite of the beginning thence a straight line to the beginning.

4th I will to my daughter Sarah Benton a piece of land on the same side of the creek at the lower end beginning as follows: Beginning at the creek on George Stones line thence with a stone line to the water line thence with the said water line to the creek thence with the creek to the beginning.

5th I will to my son and daughter the balance of my estate my son George Stone is to make the division line between him and his sisters and Sallie Grace is to have choice of the divide in witness where I have hereunto set my hand and seal this the 28th day of July 1894.

Charles Stone

Signed sealed published and declared as and for his last will and testament by the above named testator in our presence this day at his request and in their presence and in the presence of each other signed our names as witnesses thereto.

William H. Stone
Randolph Holbrook

This is to certify that on this day the foregoing will was truly signed and delivered in my said County and acknowledged by Charles Stone Testator.

S. P. Davidson Clerk
By George McKee S. C. C.

State of Kentucky: September Term
Floyd County Court: September 2nd 1894

An instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Charles Stone deceased was this day produced in open Court and the same offered for probate and the said instrument being proved by the oath of William Stone one of the subscribing witnesses to come to be the act and deed of said decedent - the said William Stone also proving the genuineness of the signature of Randolph Holbrook the other attesting witness to said will and the Court being sufficiently advised it is adjudged by the Court that the said instrument of writing be received and admitted to probate as the last will and testament of the said Charles Stone deceased.

a copy

Attest: S. P. Davidson spec
B. R. D. Harris D.C.

State of Kentucky
County of Floyd Prec.

I Malcom Hall clerk of the County Court do certify that the foregoing will of Charles Stone with above certification & order admitting same to probate and this certificate has been recorded in my office.

Witness my hand this June 20th 1902

Malcom Hall clerk.

Know all men by these presents that I Peter L. Elliott of Floyd County and State of Kentucky being of sound mind and memory and declare this my last will and testament on this the 18th day of February 1902 I make and declare first and bequeath unto my wife Nancy Emily Elliott the following named personal property to wit: One bay mare one brown cow and calf and one red heifer and five pigs also all the farming crops also that which is already harvested also all the farming tools also all the household and kitchen furniture I also bequeath unto my wife all my real estate to use and control as for own during her natural life and at her death I bequeath unto my daughter Sarah Ann $36.00 I also bequeath unto my son Henry M. Elliott $36.00 I also bequeath unto my son David A. Elliott $36.00 and at my wife's death I also bequeath unto my daughter Lucy J. Elliott the remainder of my real estate. I also make and appoint as my lawful executor Thomas W. Elliott to dispose of the remainder of my personal property to wit: Two State notes on and the funds of which are to be applied on the payment of any lawful debts signed by any own hand on the day and year above mentioned

Peter L. Elliott

Attest
Walter Lane
A. M. Order.

State of Kentucky, 2^d term
Floyd County of 28th 1902

An instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of Peter L. Elliott deceased was produced in open court by Walter Lane sworn by the oath of said Lane and A. M. Order attesting truthfulness thereto to be the act and deed of said decedent it is therefore ordered by the court that said instrument must be established and admitted to record as the last will and testament of said decedent which is now done

Witness my hand this March 20th 1904

Malone Hall Clerk

I Henry W. Harkworth of the County of Floyd and State of Kentucky, being of sound mind and memory do make publish and declare this to be my last will and testament to wit:

First I bequeath all my real estate to my heirs and they are not to sell or dispose of it in any way except they sell to each other and not to any one but mine my family. Second I bequeath all my personal property to my wife Lucinda Harkworth to have and to hold for herself and my heirs and to have control of my real estate for her support and the support of my heirs and she is to have full control to go ahead and sell and buy personal property to the best advantage for herself and my heirs Third: I nominate and appoint my son-in-law, Lucius Harkworth to be the executor of the my last will and testament.

In Witness Whereof I have hereunto set my hand this the 30th day of June 1903.

Henry W. Harkworth.

Signed sealed published and declared as and for his last will and testament by the above named attester in our presence, who have, at his request and in his presence and in the presence of each other signed our names as witnesses thereto

J. P. Conley,
Samuel W. May,
W. H. Harkworth.

At Floyd County Court, Nov. term, 1903.

An instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Henry W. Harkworth deceased was produced in open court by J. P. Conley and Samuel May two of the attesting witnesses thereto to be the act and deed of said decedent and same ordered to lay over 30 days for exception.

March Term County Court March 27th 1905 an instrument of writing the last will and testament of H. W. Harkworth having been at a former term of this Court duly proven it is now ordered that same be probated and admitted to record as the last will and testament of said decedent.

Copy att. Malone Hall Clerk

State of Kentucky,
County of Floyd, 2^d term.

I Malone Hall Clerk of the Floyd County Court do certify that the foregoing will of Henry W.
Harkworth with above certificates and Order admitting same to probate and this certificate have been seen in my office.
Witness my hand this Nov. 20th 1905.

Malone Hall Clerk,
By E. C. Hall R. C.