First, After my decease, I desire that all my funeral expenses, doctors and hospital bills, and just debts be paid in full out of my personal estate.

Second, I will and bequeath to my son, Willard Kinzer, my drilling rig, truck, car and all tools and equipment used in connection with the rig, which he is to have in his own right, subject, however, that he shall operate same and give to my beloved wife, Pearlle Kinzer, one-half of the net earnings realized from the operation of said equipment, so long as she remains my widow, or until she remarries, or conducts herself in a virtuous manner. This bequest includes the use of the mill property.

Third, I will and bequeath to my beloved wife, Pearlle Kinzer, all my real property for life, or as long as she conducts herself in a virtuous manner, or my widow. Included in this bequest of the home and real property, shall be included the household and kitchen utensils located in the home.

Fourth, Should there be any other personal property remaining, including money in bank, I desire that it be held by my Executor as a trust fund, and from which a reasonable amount be paid monthly to my beloved wife, Pearlle Kinzer, should the one-half of the net earnings of the drilling equipment not be sufficient to furnish her with the necessities of life. This bequest is conditioned that she remain my widow, that is, such payments to be made so long as she remains my widow, or conducts herself in a virtuous manner.

Fifth, After the termination of the above conditions and bequests have been met, and the residue of my estate is ready for distribution, I will and bequeath of the remaining property, real, personal and mixed, of every kind and nature, wheresoever situate, to my beloved son, Willard Kinzer, and my beloved daughter, Nellie Laferty, share and share alike, and I make this bequest not unmindful of my other children.
