

THIS IS THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF W. M. SEXTON AND MARTHA SEXTON, HIS WIFE, OF GARRETT, FLOYD COUNTY, KENTUCKY.

W. M. Sexton and Martha Sexton, appearing to be of sound mind and good health, and in the presence of the undersigned witnesses hereby subscribes to their last will and testament.

We give, bequeath and devise to our sons as follows: Lester Sexton, Willard Sexton, Leonard Sexton, Edgel Sexton, William Sexton, Jr., and Bert Sexton, in complete and perfect ownership and our rights and property of every claim and nature, whether real, personal or mixed; wherever situated, appointing them executrix of our estate, without bond and giving them seisin thereof, equal share, after all our obligations have been taken care of. Any obligation that we are bound to for the above named sons shall be settled by him, out of his share of our estate.

Kermit Sexton, our deceased son. His daughter, Joyce Nadene Sexton, (Now Keer) is to have ($50.00) Fifty Dollars out of each above son's share, which would amount to ($300.00) Three Hundred Dollars. (There is a good reason for this.) This is her share in our estate, to be paid to her by William Sexton, Jr., Our Executor.

It is our Will, that each of our sons agree and have no hard feelings toward each other. Be friends always, help each other when he needs help.

William Sexton, Jr., executor. Sell our home and land to the highest bidder and divide the money equally to each son, named above, our bank accounts to be divided equally with the above named sons, our insurance for ($3,000) with the Aetna Life Insurance Company, be divided equally to the above named sons, ($1,000) One Thousand Dollars Insurance with the Conservative Life Insurance Company, be divided equally with the above named sons.

This will is to take effect after the death of each testator.

W. M. SEXTON, Sr.

MARTHA SEXTON

This will was subscribed to in our presence, this the 23rd day of October, 1953.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT
WILLIAM C. JOHNSTONE

I, William C. Johnstone of the City of Betsy Layne, County of Floyd, and state of Kentucky, do make and publish the following as my last will and testament hereby revoking all former wills made by me.

Item I. I direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be first paid out of my estate.

Item II. Reposing full confidence in my beloved wife, Lorena Johnstone, and knowing that the welfare of our child, Paul Douglas Johnstone, can be safely entrusted to her, I give, devise and bequeath all of my estate, real, personal and mixed, wheresoever situate, to my said wife, Lorena Johnstone, and to her heirs forever.

Item III. If my wife, Lorena Johnstone, and I should die simultaneously I hereby give and bequeath all of my estate real, personal, and mixed wheresoever situate to our child, Paul Douglas Johnstone and his heirs forever.

Item IV. I hereby nominate and appoint my said wife, Lorena Johnstone, the executrix of this my last will and testament, hereby authorizing and empowering my said executrix to compound, compromise, settle and adjust all debts and claims which may be presented against my estate, or which may be due to my estate; and to sell, at private or public sale, at such prices, and upon such terms of credit or otherwise, as she may deem best, the whole or any part of my real estate or personal property, and to execute, acknowledge and deliver deeds and other proper instruments of conveyance thereof to the purchaser or purchasers. In the event my said wife, Lorena Johnstone, shall refuse or fail to qualify as executrix of the estate I hereby nominate The First National Bank of Pikeville, Pikeville, Kentucky, as said executor to carry out the terms and provisions of this will.

I direct that no bond be required of my said executrix, and that no inventory or appraisal of my estate be made, unless my wife fails to qualify in which case the First National Bank of Pikeville shall give bond, and there shall be an inventory and appraisal of estate.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand at Pikeville, Kentucky, this eighth day of February, 1950.

WILLIAM C. JOHNSTONE

Signed by the said WILLIAM C. JOHNSTONE, and by him acknowledged to be his last will and testament, before us and in our presence, and by us subscribed as attesting witnesses in his presence and at his request and in the presence of each other this eighth day of February, 1950.
