Brydon. In the name of God Amen. I Robert Brydon of the County of Kent and State of Kentucky being weak and feeble of sound mind and memory and calling to mind the uncertainty of life do constitute ordain and establish that my last will & Testament in manner & form following viz. First of all I commend my body to the dust to be buried decently at the discretion of my friends and I do hereby commit to the care and in the hands of almighty God in hopes of a joyful resurrection and reunion at the last day. As to my worldly possessions of which it has pleased God to endow me. It is my will and desire to be disposed of in the following manner, to wit. Item after all my just Debts are paid it is my will that my loving wife Mary Brydon shall possess and retain in her hands and for her own benefit a certain piece of land that I may possess at my death (provided she should out live me) for and during her natural life and after her death all the estate of land and all Scrutable & unscrutable of every description that may then remain shall be sold at the money arising from such sale to be equally divided among all my children, and also it is my desire that my grand daughter Nathanael Brydon have an equal portion of the money with each of my children. It is my desire that the above named property be sold and divided as aforesaid by my executors hereafter to be named. Item It is my desire that my executors retain in their hands my son James Brydon for his portion of money & pay him annually the interest thereof during his natural life provided the interest thereof should not amount to more than the principal & from the number of years in which case they are to pay him no more. Item In case my daughter Dorotha Church dies without issue or leaving no child, It is my will that her portion of the estate be returned and equally divided among the rest of my children. My children named in this my will are Dorotha, Margaret John James, William, Barbara, Robert, and Stevenson, and I do hereby appoint & constitute my sons John Brydon and William Brydon Executors to this my last will, and I do hereby thereunto publish/proclaim and declare this to be my last will & Testament, writing all other heretofore made by me in Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 18th day of April in the year of our Lord Eighteen hundred & twenty seven.
