

interest of the said money. It is also my wish that my plantation & property may be sold at my wife death and the money arising from the sale to be equally divided amongst my children to wit Elijah Sally Susan Edon Pristley Rebecca Spencer Talia and Sarah. It is my will and desire that the four hundred dollars with interest from the date that is upon Jacob McBlane living in the Indiana territory and on a hundred thirty dollars note on A. J. Singson to be so divided as to make the rest of the children equal with what I have give to my son Elijah as I have kept a book and set down what I have give to each one of my sons. Elijah is to have his equal share if not enough it is to be made up out of the sale of land it is my will each son shall be equal. Also it is my will that if anything should be got from Spencer Oaks descent estate be it what it may that it be equally divided between my before named children also it is my will that if one or more of my children shall die without issue that its or their share should equally divided amongst the survivors September the 18th 1820

Test. Joseph Anderson
Reuben Samuel
I do Appoint my wife Constant and my son Spencer, Executors of my Estate this 2nd day June 1826
Test. Joseph Anderson
Reuben Samuel

Franklin County August Court 1826
A writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Joseph Anderson dead was produced in Court and was proved by the oath of Reuben Samuel the subscribing witness thereto which is ordered to be recorded
Test. W. H. Rennie Clerk

Ann Brown In the name of God Amen I Ann Brown of Franklin County and State of Kentucky being weak in body but perfect in mind and memory knowing it is appointed unto me to die with make and ordain this my last will and testament this 12 day of June in the year of our Lord 1826 I bequeath to my son Daniel B. Brown one negro woman named Milley and her increase to his children forever likewise one yoke of Oxen and the corner cupboard standing in my room I give to my grand son John Peiv a young black Steer and calf likewise a young bay horse called Thomas It is my will that my negro woman Hanna at my death shall be free It is my will that all the rest of my property not given away shall be equally divided between my two daughters Polly Brown & Elizabeth Lew It is my will and desire that my son James George Brown William and William shall have 14 In the name of God Amen I David Driskill of Franklin County Kentucky being in a debilitated state of health but of a sound mind and a perfect memory do make this my last will and testament in manner and form as follows to wit I will that all my lawful debts be paid out of such of my Estate as can in the judgement of my Executors be best applied I bequeath unto my beloved wife Polly Driskill the house and lot on which I now reside together with a negro girl named Mary during her life and after her death I bequeath the same unto my children Joseph William Driskill Malinda Driskill Sophia Driskill and the offspring of which my said wife is now pregnant together with the increase which said Negro Mary may have to be equally divided among them and their heirs forever but should the increase of said negro if any she should have be (in the opinion of my Executors) conveniently spared from the possession of my said wife during her life then it is my will that my children above mentioned and provided for should have their equal interest in said increase as they become of age and lastly I do constitute and appoint Joseph W. Mazine and my beloved wife Polly Driskill my Executors and executrix to put the same into effect hereby acknowledging this to be my last will & testament this 9th day of September A.D. 1826

David Driskill
Signed in the presence of
W. H. Walker
Nelson Utterback
Franklin County November Court 1826
A writing purporting to be the last will and testament of David Driskill dead was produced in Court and proved by the oath of Jordan H. Walker & Nelson Utterback the subscribing witnesses thereto which is ordered to be recorded

Ann Brown In the name of God Amen I Ann Brown of Franklin County and State of Kentucky being weak in body but perfect in mind and memory knowing it is appointed unto me to die with make and ordain this my last will and testament this 12 day of June in the year of our Lord 1826 I bequeath to my son Daniel B. Brown one negro woman named Milley and her increase to his children forever likewise one yoke of Oxen and the corner cupboard standing in my room I give to my grand son John Peiv a young black Steer and calf likewise a young bay horse called Thomas It is my will that my negro woman Hanna at my death shall be free It is my will that all the rest of my property not given away shall be equally divided between my two daughters Polly Brown & Elizabeth Lew It is my will and desire that my son James George Brown William and William shall have