

Franklin County Court November Term 1845

Writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Martin Cook deceased, produced in Court, and was proven by the oaths of Munk Penn and Wiler Penn, subscribers to the same which when read was received as the last will of said Cook, which on the said will is truly recorded in my office
att. A. H. Pennington J.C.

Harris June 9

In the name of God Amen. I Jane P. Harris of the County of Franklin and State of Kentucky, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make and declare this my last will and testament. First I desire that all my debts of any kind be paid - Secondly I give to my son William P. Harris my negro woman Julia Ann and my negro boy James the two valued at $100 also my silver sugar dish and cream dish my feather bed - Thirdly I give to my son Daniel H. Harris my negro man George and my good white lin linen table cloth linen and table 2 sack should my issue in all children I am possessed of Fourthly I give to my son John P. Harris, my negro boy Jim and my negro girl Sophia the two valued at $700 also my dozen of silver tea spoons & table spoons, 1 pair of sugar tongs, plated leather tray set of castors - Fifthly I give & devise to my son William P. Harris my negro boys Rich & Willis & John and my negro girl Frankie, and the bed bedstead and other furniture in my own room in brick house for the full value of use and enjoy said furniture and he is to purchase the annual hire of said slaves and then encase like nothing I have left of my said son Charles Henry during his life or to purchase said Charles Henry to use such of them as said trustee may deem expedient to be sold at the death of said Charles Henry, I direct that said proceeds shall be held in trust for the lawful heirs of his body should he have any of which in equal proportion to my sons Wm P. Harris, Daniel H. Harris, & John P. Harris, or to the heirs of each of them as may at that time be dead

In the event of the death or absence from the State of my son Wm P. Harris then I direct and empower my relative Harry S. Bradley to act either as executor or trustee for my son Charles Henry Harris and I revoke said Bradley with the same power & authority over the property hereby devised for the benefit of said Charles H. that is hereby given to said Wm P. Harris

Sixthly I direct & devise that my negro woman Violet shall live & belong to such one of my sons as she may desire & I empower it upon said son to attend to her & provide for her in her old age

Sevently - All the balance of my property in clothing my negro woman Ellen & her children I give to be equally divided between my sons William P. Harris Daniel H. Harris and John P. Harris, but out of the same I desire & direct that the value of the servants being said three sons as herein set forth shall be equalized, hence that three be paid to my son William P. the sum of seventy five dollars and to my son John P. the sum of fifty dollars their marriage their share to be $100 each, the balance to be paid to the said three sons son Daniel and lastly I nominate Elizabeth Robinson for executor of this my last will & testament In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand this 5th day of June 1845 signed sealed & acknowledged in presence of

R. M. Henderson
& Bradley
Jane P. Harris (L)

Franklin County Court November Term 1845

Writing purporting to be the last will & testament of Jane P. Harris deceased produced in Court, and was proven by the oaths of R. M. Henderson & R. Bradley whereupon the same is read & received as the last will and testament of the said Jane P. Harris deceased which is done accordingly
att. A. H. Pennington J.C.

Reagon Franklin County Kentucky Sept. 15th 1845

In the name of God Amen I Pamela Reagon being in a sound state of health and of sound mind and disposing memory do make this my last will and testament. First I direct that my daughter Rebecca to have all of my household furniture and all of the money that I find due me or acts I may have for money due me by the Act of Assembly or otherwise to be held for the same for the support of her self and children. In my further will that my daughter Rebecca to have an equal share of my lands that may be come from the U. S. Government - 3rd I give my will that my son in law James P. Wright be my executor of this my last will and testament. Witness my hand this day & date above written

Test L. W. H. accy
Wm Wright
Geo. Force
Pamela Reagon
for Reagon
man

Franklin County Court November Term 1845

Writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Pamela Reagon deceased was produced in Court, and was proven by the oaths of Wm Wright and Geo. Force subscribers to the same which when read was received as the last will & testament of the said Reagon and the said will is truly received in my office
att. A. H. Pennington J.C.

Graham January 1839

I William Graham of the County of Franklin and State of Kentucky being a sound and advanced in the seventy one year of my age and of full enjoyment of my senses and reason but not knowing how long I may continue to be the subject of the law or how long from the common course of nature that my children may live I do hereby declare that it is my will and desire that my children should be provided for in such a manner as to be equalized in the same and I do hereby give to my son William P. the sum of seventy five dollars and to my son John P. the sum of fifty dollars their marriage their share to be $100 each, the balance to be paid to the said three sons