what may be necessary for the use of the family together and all personal articles may be sold for the benefit of the Estate and to with all the property that shall arise by the production of the farm and Slaves in any and every way held by my executors to if not wanted for the support of my infant children if my executor should at any time with the consent of my said wife Susan Price think it best they may not put any part of the farm and Slaves any part or all of the Slaves the General benefit and with the property that may arise in any and every way by the collection of my debts and in the ways after the payment of my just debts which I wish to be by my said Executors to be held subject to distribution to the surviving of my wife I consider what I give my daughter Polly about the time she was married to gether with what she has some of her grand father Mays Estate to be worth eleven hundred dollars all which I consider as from my self and they not to receive any more of my Estate until all my children have received eleven hundred dollars each after which she may receive equal division of the remainder if any there should be I consider what I have given my son John Price about the time of his marriage including six acres of land adjoining where I leave to be worth twelve hundred dollars and that he is not to have any more of my Estate and all my children have each and to be amount of twelve hundred dollars then if any remains he shall have an equal division of the same I consider what I have given my son William H Price including his education boarding clothing books to have all together with thirty seven acres of land when he dies to be worth thirteen hundred dollars and that he is not to have any more of my Estate until my children have each received of my Estate to the amount of thirteen hundred dollars then if any then remains he shall have an equal division of the same I consider what I have given my daughter Elizabeth Sanders including the quilt and line a valuable man with saddle and bedding and sundry other articles of furniture to be worth five hundred dollars and that she is not to receive any more of my Estate until all my children have each received of my Estate five hundred and fifty dollars then she shall have an equal division of that remains I consider what I have given my daughter Elizabeth Stull including the quilt and line a valuable man with saddle and bedding and sundry other articles of furniture to be worth five hundred and fifty dollars and she is not to have any more of my Estate until all my children have received to the amount of five hundred and fifty dollars after which she shall have an equal division of what remains I consider what I have given my son Evans worth one hundred and twenty dollars and that I have given him one thousand dollars during his infancy in all eleven hundred and twenty dollars and he is not to have any more of my Estate until all my children have each received of my Estate to the amount of eleven hundred and twenty dollars then if any remains he shall have an equal division of the same I consider what I have given to John Price Esquire to be worth three hundred and twenty dollars and that he is not to referred to the amount of Eleven hundred and twenty dollars then he shall have right to an equal dividend of any then remaining I consider what I have given my son Daniel to Price including his education expenses tuition for writing blanketing Books &c. with horse saddle and bridle to be worth one thousand dollars and that his not to have any more of my Estate until all my children have received each to the amount of one thousand dollars then he shall have a right to an equal dividend of what may remain to my daughter Susan thing since I hardly give the black girl that she had her infant milk to be killed and I give with her future increase, to get her out to expect horse saddle and bridle and to be hired and yet as a proper law saying when she may get married or if her circumstances make it necessary all of which I consider to be worth five hundred and fifty dollars and that she is not to have more of my Estate until all my children have received their share of my Estate to the amount of five hundred and fifty dollars then she shall have a right to an equal dividend of what may remain to my son Richard to the amount of thirty years to him left over of labor lying in the most industrious manner that he can obtain I may live being that when I formerly give to servants and have taught him to be a carpenter and joiner the wages of a master carpenter and cabinet maker for him to secure when he becomes of age to get his wife a pair of horse saddles and bridle which he is to be allowed to have one dollar and he is not to receive any more of my Estate until all my children have each received of my Estate to the amount of one thousand dollars after which he may have a right to share an equal dividend of what may remain my son Ezra it is his may go on to receive an education that will fit him for some profession in law or physic and to be charged with the expenses thereof until the end of the year when he becomes of age he is to be made equal with my other children as to the division of my Estate either in mine or property including the expenses of Education my desire is that my above named executors to wit my beloved wife
