

Caroleus Fetherston of the County of Franklin & State of Kentucky, do hereby make my last will and Testament, in manner and form following that is to say.

1st I desire that my just debts (if any there should be against me) and funeral expences be paid by executor hereinafter to be named, and appointed immediately after my decease.

2^{dy} I give to my two daughters Elizabeth Russell & Sally Wilkerson fifty cents each and to my sons Robert Fetherston, James Fetherston, William Fetherston, Jeremiah Fetherston, & Daniel Fetherston I give the sum of fifty cents each.

3^{dy} I give to my son Charles Fetherston my Coat Riding ~~Shape~~ and saddle one hundred dollars in money, which I loaned him not long ~~ago~~, and the one half of all my household & kitchen furniture.

4^{thly} I give to my son John Fetherston my black horse my Riding Sigs and the other half of all my horses hold & kitchen furniture. I desire my executor hereafter to be named, as aforesaid, to see my plantations in the State of Virginia for the best price it will command, and collect the rents and profits of said farms of my son William Fetherston, of said State, who had been for some time my agent, together with certain sums of money which by my said agent has collected for me and to my use, from other sources, and divide the same equally between my two sons Charles Fetherston & John Fetherston, both the proceeds of the sales of ~~the~~ land, the rents & profits of the plantations and the monies in the hands of my agent in said State of Virginia.

5^{thly} all the real of my estate, whether real or personal of what nature or kind soever, it may be not herein before particularly disposed of I desire may be equally divided between my two sons, Charles Fetherston & John Fetherston.

And lastly, I do hereby constitute and appoint my son Charles Fetherston, Executor of this my last will & Testament hereby revoking all other or former wills or Testaments by me made, heretofore. In Witness whereof I hereunto set my hand & seal, this 20th day of March in the year Eighteen hundred & thirty.

Signed sealed, published and declared, in presence of us of the above named Caroleus Fetherston
J. Ringate
Fielding Jones,
Caroleus ^{his} Fetherston ^(S)
Mark

Franklin County Court, June Term 1830
A writing purporting to be the last will & Testament of Caroleus Fetherston dec'd, was produced in Court & proved by the oath of Isaac Ringate & Fielding Jones the subscribing Witnesses thereon, which is ordered to be recorded, and thereupon the same has been duly admitted to record in my office.
J. P. Ringate

Payton This the 12 day of January 1828. This is to Certify that Betty Payton being in my right reason and sense make this my last will and Testament, to my son Charles James one Counterpane one spot, one Blanket, one black Co. wth white face, to my son Benjamin one bed wth furniture one pair of Co. one black horse, one spelter dish, of Dutchen Shirts & the candle live on, one sorrib mare, to my daughter Lavinia one bed wth furniture, one haircur without mounting - to my grand son James W. Steele all the stacks of hog's one white Co. one spot with Dails one bed wth furniture one foot crammer - to my daughter, Newthy one side saddle one Counterpane to my son Sanford Payton one Counterpane to daughter Sarah Roach one Bureau, one Cupboard and all the Cupboards, mares, wheels & Reels and every thing else belonging to me, this division to take place at my death & not before.
Jest John Churchfield
Jellita Roach
Mark

Franklin County Set a Store Court 1828.
Benjamin Payton produced in Court a nuncupative will of Betty Payton dec'd, which being proven by the oath of John Churchfield James Steele & Sarah Roach is ordered to be recorded and thereupon the same hath been duly admitted to record in my office.
Jest J. P. Ringate

W. I expect to go to Virginia I make this will that if I should die single that after my debts are paid the balance of my estate to be sold by my father and equally divided between my brother and sister as they may need it. Witness my hand this 5th day of July 1829
J. P. Ringate

Franklin County Court, Set June Term 1830
A writing purporting to be the last will and Testament of Abraham dec'd was this day produced in Court and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court by the testimony of a their W. Marshall, William Johnson & Charles Buck that the said will & signature is wholly and truly the last will & Testament of the said Abraham the same is ordered to be recorded.