

I give my negro boy named John and the gray geld and one feather bed and bedding - and to my daughter, Eliza I give my negro boy named Sam and also fifty Dollars in specie to be paid her when she shall arrive to the age of sixteen out of the money arising from the sale of the estate the balance of my estate to be sold and the bonds which I hold for money due my if ever collected to be equally divided among my five children namely Job, George, Jacob, Jane & Eliza D. and lastly I do appoint my son Job Sharp and Edward Wall my Executors to this my last will and testament hereby revoking all others In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 23rd day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty three signed in the presence of as follows

Vincent Boaguz
George Sharp
Solomon Sharp

Franklin County & November Court 1823
A writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Agah Sharp deceased was produced in court & proved by the oaths of George Sharp and Solomon Sharp two of the subscribing witnesses thereto & ordered to be recorded

In the name of God amen I William Sneed of the County of Franklin in the State of Kentucky being weak in body but of sound mind and perfect memory do make this my last will and testament in the manner following to wit that all my just debts and burial expenses be first paid and then satisfied It is next my wish and desire that my negro man Reuben and my Negro woman Colia be free from after my death and that Colia have one hundred dollars paid to her by my Executors out of my estate I give to my brother, Sandon Sneed the following Negroes to wit, Collick, William, Henry Jack and Sally to him and his heirs forever I Give unto the heirs of my brother, Achilles Sneed the balance of my Negroes to be equally divided between them I give to my brother, John Sneed the plantation whereon I live together with my stock of Horses cattle sheep Hogs Household and kitchen furniture and farming utensils I next appoint my brother Sandon Sneed and my friend James Millam Executors of this my last will and testament hereby revoking all other wills by me heretofore made In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this second day of August 1827 signed and acknowledged in presence of

William Sneed

Franklin County August Court 1827
The last will and testament of Wm Sneed deceased was produced in Court and proven by the oath of William R. Hankins & Smith Hankins two of the subscribing witnesses thereto which is ordered to be recorded and the test same is done according to law

Franklin County November Court 1827
This day Benjamin Hillman witness to the Codicil to the last will & testament of Charles Heald deceased appeared in Court and after being first duly sworn deposeth and saith that he heard Charles Heald now deceased acknowledge the same and that he believed him in his proper mind and senses which Codicil being fully proved is ordered to be recorded

William V. William Trotter being of sound mind but infirm states of health do make and ordain this my last will and testament (will) that is after all my just debts are paid I give to my wife Rachel the farm whereon I now live to gether with all the residue of my estate for and during her natural life and widowhood for the benefit of herself and children and whenever either of those events should take place I will that my estate be equally divided amongst my ten children as witness my hand this 6th day of July 1827

Witness
Charles Heald
Thomas Hayden
I give to my son William the several horse now in his possession and the one daughter, Lerna the black geld which she rides lastly I appoint my wife Rachel & Selas W. Stuel my Executors to this my last will and testament

Franklin County September Court 1827
A writing purporting to be the last will and testament with the Codicil of William Trotter deceased was produced in Court and proven by the oath of Thomas Hayden one of the subscribing witnesses thereto which is ordered to be certified

Franklin County & November Court 1827
The last will and testament of William Trotter deceased was fully proven by the oath of Charles Heald one of the subscribing witnesses thereto which will is ordered to be recorded