John ^{his} _{mark} Thompson

Franklin County December Court 1825

A Writing purporting to be the last will and testament, of John Thompson doct was produced in Court, and proved by the Oaths of John S. Lillard and Wm W. Penney two of the sworn Witnesses thereto and ordered to be recorded which is done accordingly

Wm W. Penney Test
J. S. Lillard Clerk

I do hereby make and Ordain this my last will and testament the same being wholly written and subscribed with my own hand I have heretofore given to my son Charles S. Todd Slaves and other property and expensed and advanced considerable sums of money which I consider part full provision of my estate I therefore desire that he shall not have any further portion of it I have also given to my son John S. Todd Slaves and other property and expended and advanced considerable sums of money which I consider his full provision of my estate I therefore desire that he shall have no further portion of it I have also given to my daughter Amanda S. Todd who is married with my daughter Anne Maria Slaves and made advances to her what I consider a sufficient marriage portion to my said daughter I therefore desire that she shall not have any further portion of my estate Except that I request my executor hereafter named to secure the sum of five hundred dollars in specie for the use of my said daughter during her life and at her death to be paid to such child or children as she may have living at that time I give and devise to my affectionate wife Lucy S. Todd all the rest and residue of my estate real personal mixed or of any and every nature or denomination whatever during her life on trust to manage it for the support of her self and our children and at her death to be equally divided among our children Madisonian William Johnson and James Madison Todd and their heirs forever
It is my desire and intention that all the estate real personal mixed or of any & every other description whatever which I here have or which I shall hereafter acquire death or to which I may be entitled in law or equity or in any way whatever shall pass by the foregoing devise I hereby constitute and appoint my said wife sole executrix of this will & desire that she may not be required to compound the same or security for obtaining letters testamentary thereon or to make out any inventory or appraisement of my estate I further authorize empower, my said wife to execute deeds or other instruments of writing to carry into effect any contract which I have entered into and to settle and acquit by arbitration, compromise or in any other way she may deem proper any suit, dispute or controversy of whatever nature respecting my affairs and to appoint attorneys or agents with the power of substitution to superintend and manage all or any part of the estate hereby devised to her and to perform any act which she herself could do by virtue of the powers hereby vested in her I hereby give full power to my said wife to sell and dispose of all or any part of the estate devised to her for life or in trust and to vest the proceeds in such other property or manage it in such manner as she may deem most advisable for the interest of her self and our said children In testimony whereof I do hereby sign seal publish & declare this writing as and for my last will and testament hereby revoking all former wills this twenty second day of December eighteen hundred & twenty five

In the name of God Amen I Robert Ouel of the County of Franklin and State of Kentucky being of sound mind and disposing memory and in Consideration of the uncertainty of life and knowing that it is appointed unto man once to die do hereby make Ordain and establish this as my last will and testament, in the following manner, to wit, first my desire is that my body should be decently buried my funeral expenses and all just debts should be paid and that the residue of my estate do remain in the hands of my lawful wife Ann Maria Ouel and that the same do continue and remain in her possession to the end that she may enjoy it and dispose of it as she shall think 10 for and during her life if she should at any time remain my widow, but my desire is that if she should marry then and in that case that my two negroes Leamund and Georgiana should go into slavery free and that two thirds of my other property should be equally divided betwixt my said two slaves Leamund and Georgiana with the exception of the sum hereafter reserved to my executor but if either of my said slaves should die then and in that case the portion of my estate to which the one so dying was entitled shall belong to the one surviving but be it further understood that within three months of my wife the slaves as above named shall be free and shall have hold and enjoy my property as herein before described with the exception to my executor, as is herein before provided for but in the event that my two slaves should die then and in that case at the death of my wife my property shall be distributed in the form and manner following that is to say one third to the children of my sister Agnes Smith and one One third to the brothers and sisters of my wife Gemma and the remaining one third to Cyrus Wengate and be it further known that I do hereby appoint my friend Cyrus Wengate as my executor to see that this my last will and testament shall be faithfully executed and I do hereby enjoin it on him to see that strict Justice is done between my before mentioned slaves and to do and perform all things herein required in good faith and for so doing hereby will and bequeath unto him the sum of two hundred dollars in testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 21st day of July 1825
