

bequeath to my beloved wife Margaret the farm and Manse where I now live as long as she shall remain unmarried and widow, but on her decease or marriage all the estate, goods and chattels I wish to be sold and equally divided between my children. I do nominate and appoint my beloved wife Margaret to be the sole executrix of this my last will and testament. My wife may have a better sale and sell property enough to pay my debts, or she can sell privately as she thinks best.

In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and seal December 13th 1872.

In the name of God. Amen,

I John B. Miller of the County of Franklin and State of Kentucky being mindful of the uncertainty of life and the great certainty of death, and wishing to dispose of my real personal and moveable estate that I may be entitled to at the time of my death do make and publish this my last will and testament:

1st It is my will and desire that after death my body shall be buried decently in the Catholic part of the Frankfort Cemetery, that suitable slabs be placed on my grave.

2nd I hereby direct that all my just debts be first paid.

3rd I hereby give and bequeath to Washington Hancock all moneys and property that I may have (over and above my debts) of every description, whether real personal or mixed, to have and to hold forever.

4th I hereby appoint Washington Hancock as my executor to carry out fully the intentions of this will.
