In reviewing the within will dated April 4th 1874, I have concluded to amend it this day September 13th 1875, and do amend it by this codicil, by which I declare it to be my will that the bequests therein made to my daughters Martha French and Levinia Thomson shall be placed in the hands of G. L. Hughes, whom I hereby appoint Trustee to hold and administer the money and other property I have bequeathed to them, in trust for the use and benefit. Should said Trustee at any time deem it advisable to re-invest the money or other property he holds in trust for either of the aforesaid devisees, I desire him to consult with my executors and make such re-investment as upon such consultation may be deemed advisable for the proper use and benefit of said devisees.

In the name of God. Amen. I, Henry Burchfield of the County of Franklin and State of Kentucky, being of sound mind and disposing memory do make known this my last will and testament.

I will and bequeath to my wife Joanna Burchfield my farm and personal property of whatever kind during her natural life without account. I desire her to give to the younger children that may remain with her the same raisins and presents that I have given to the other children. I desire all my just debts to be paid; and at the death of my wife I desire that all my property left be sold and divided equally amongst all of my children. I enjoin my son Innis Burchfield to remain with his mother and take care of her and the younger children. This 17th October 1875
