

My above named daughter has not borrowed of me and owes me anything, but my son has borrowed of me five hundred dollars for which I hold his note. In witness whereof I have made this as my last will and testament subscribing in the presence of witnesses and the witnesses subscribing in my presence, this 17th July 1877

Affirmed
Nelson Alley

Franklin County Court
Monday August 19th 1878

A writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Emily Seave Dec^d was produced in Court and proved by the oath of A. J. James one of the subscribing witnesses thereof who also proved the attestation of Nelson Alley the other subscribing witness. Whereupon it is ordered that said will be recorded which is done.

Att Jno. G. Crockett Esq. S. C. C.
By W. D. Graves Esq.

Whitehead
Isabella

In the name of God amen. Isabella Whitehead of Franklin Kentucky do make and declare this to be my last will and testament and hereby bequeathing all my estate made by me, first I wish all my just debts to be paid for I subject the whole of my estate. Second I will and give to my daughter Margaret Murry all of my personal property and papers of every kind after my just debts are paid and also my house and lot in Frankfort on new street which lot I purchased from H. B. Blanton and wife and recorded in Franklin County Court office in book no 2 page 115 My daughter Margaret is to pay to my grand daughter Callie B. Roberts three hundred dollars at my death. I have before given to my son Llewellyn her father what I consider to be his portion of my estate. I devise to my daughter in law and her children my house and lot on Lexington street that I have bought of H. H. Murray with the exception of twenty feet next to H. H. Murray's line which I give to my grand son William Whitehead eldest son of my son John. Lastly I appoint my son John Whitehead my executor and desire that the County Court shall not require security of the performance of the trust I herein confer in him. Witness my name the 16th March 1874.

Signed and acknowledged in my presence the substance of the attestation being present at the same time
James A. Brown
Isabella

Franklin County Court
Monday September 3rd 1878

A Writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Isabella Whitehead Dec^d was produced in Court and proven by the oaths of James G. Crockett and Jacob Smith the subscribing witnesses thereto Whereupon it is ordered that said will be recorded which is done.

Jno. G. Crockett Esq. S. C. C.
By W. D. Graves Esq.

Be it remembered that I Samuel B. Scofield now being of sound mind & disposing memory and knowing the certainty of death and the uncertainty of life do make this my last will to wit 1st after my death it is my will that my executor herein after named will sell so much of my property as will pay all of my just debts & funeral expenses and the remainder of my property I leave to my beloved wife Nancy Scofield during her life that is all of my property and land in Franklin County & after the death of my wife the property is to be divided so follow beginning about sixteen feet north of the grave yard, thence running a due west course to the North & South line which runs between my old tract & Wright tract of land thence passing the old line twelve feet, thence north to the Candale & Bridgeport turnpike road, thence a few yards west to a line betwixt myself & James B. Roberts thence with that line north to the Scanlan tract of land, thence with another of my lines East to the Kenny road & thence with the road South to the Candale & Bridgeport turnpike road, thence with the pike a westerly course to the junction of the pike leading to my dwelling house, thence with that pike a southerly course passing the pond far enough so that a due west course will strike the beginning the above boundary of land I give to my daughter Rosamah Jenkins and her children & in the event that my daughter should die first and leave no children it is my will that J. W. Jenkins shall hold the property during his life and at his death to return to my blood relations the balance of my land I give to my son William Scofield and all that is on it of every description household & kitchen furniture farming utensils and books & papers after making the reserves as follows I give to my son S. B. Scofield seven hundred dollars I give to my daughter Rosamah Jenkins one bed and bedding I give to my grand son S. B. Scofield one bed and bedding and give to my son S. B. Scofield