In the name of God amen.

I Charles Fleming, of Christfield County, being of sound mind and memory, do make, publish and ordain this my last Will and Testament.
After my just and legal debts lawfully paid I will and devise the following distribution of all my real and personal estate both in the State of Virginia and of Kentucky, to wit: I give all my real estate which law and is situated in the State of Kentucky to my brother William Fleming and my two nephews John Bernard Jr. and Richard Bernard in trust to be sold for the benefit of my creditors and to pay such legacies as shall be hereafter directed. Which real estate consists of the following tracts and parcels viz: One tract of land lying in the County of Mason and situated on the waters of the Ohio river containing eighty thousand acres, also one other tract lying in the same County and situated on the same waters containing twenty thousand acres, also one other tract in the same County and containing sixteen thousand, one hundred and twenty one acres, also one tract lying at the mouth of Glass Creek about four miles from Frankfort, only one moiety of the above tracts and parcels of land being mine is all that I give the aforesaid trustees for the above mentioned purposes.

After my debts are discharged by the money arising from the sale of my land by the above mentioned trustees of the remainder or residue of the money arising from the sale of my land I give and bequeath one fifth part to my two wives Mary Lewis and Char-sanna Lewis, their heirs or assigns forever.

I give and bequeath to my brother William Fleming, John Bernard, Junior and Richard Bernard in trust for my sister Mary Bernard, or for her surviving children, two fifths of the aforesaid residue or remainder, to them, their heirs or assigns forever, by which it may be seen that the aforesaid two fifths shall be appropriated by the said trustees for the support and maintenance of my sister Mary Bernard for her life, and after her death to be equally divided among such of her children as shall
