I, Jos. G. Consett of Franklin County and J. G. Consett being of sound mind and disposing memory do make this my last will and testament. I devise and direct that my house and lot in Frankfort Kentucky be sold and the proceeds be used as follows:
Firstly: To the payment of all my just debts & funeral expenses.
Secondly: Two hundred dollars ($200) to be invested in a house for my house Elizabeth Galt of Clark
Thirdly: Enough of the residue to be used to pay the debts of my sister, Eliza G. Sullinger, and lastly the remainder of said proceeds to be invested in City Bonds of the City of Frankfort Kentucky, said Bonds to be issued to my said sister, Eliza G. Sullinger, and to go her sole property, separate and apart from her husband.

I have in my possession two bank notes, one for five hundred dollars, other for six hundred dollars, which I bequeath to my husband George M. Hall, now of Santa Rosa, Sonora a County California. I also own a note for five hundred dollars now in the possession of Mr. Snyder of Frankfort Kentucky, which I bequeath to my nephew John A. Snyder of Milton Kentucky.

I have by Constable law appointed my sister Eliza G. Sullinger my sole executrix with full powers and authority to carry into effect and once after my decease all the provisions of this my will.
In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand this 27th day of January 1871
