I. Mary S. Stannard of Frankfort in Kentucky, do make this my last will and testament, revoking all others heretofore made by me.
 I direct that my debts which I may owe at my death, be paid by my Executors as soon as possible.
 I wish fifty dollars per year to be appropriated to keeping in good order, my lot and the grounds thereon, in the Frankfort City and I direct that an amount sufficient to produce this annual sum be placed in the hands of J. W. Hunt Reynolds as Trustee for this purpose, with power to appoint his successor in the trust and with like power in the successor from time to time.
 It was the wish and special request of my husband, that my nephew and adopted son J. W. Hunt Reynolds should have all his books and that my niece and adopted daughter Catherine G. Thome should have all his pictures, and I hereby bequeath them accordingly - The said pictures being a kind of the Senior Chocota a seal, Sylphide, two fruit pieces and a copy of one of Raphael's pictures.
 The rest of my pictures I wish disposed of according to a Memorandum which I shall have signed by myself the directions of which are also to be pursued, as to any other memorials or other personal effects.
 I give the silver spoons & table silver from my fathers estate and marked with his coat to my brother Abner D. Hunt as he has others of the same set.
 I give my bed room and dressing room furniture to my niece Catherine G. Thome.
 I devise my Bushing house on St. Clair street in Frankfort with the lot adjoining to it to my friend Mrs. Maria G. Grund
 I bequeath stocks or bonds of the value of Twenty five hundred Dollars out of such as shall belong to me at my death to Mary Harriet Bodley, daughter of Charles S. Bodley dec<sup>d</sup> for life, to be held for her by a Trustee or Trustees appointed from time to time by my personal representatives with remainder after her death to be to Blair D. Bodley.
 I direct my Executors to set apart a fund sufficient to produce the net sum of six hundred Dollars which I bequeath and direct them to pay to my Cousin John S. Toney, daughter of the late John S. Toney who has since lived. At her death the fund
