

however that she remains single until my death I will that my Cousin, Samuel S. Cor., shall be my Executor etc. so that this my will is executed and into effect.

Given under my hand this the 29th day of October 1871.
Witness N. H. Cleveland Sarah H. Cor.
E. H. Norden

Franklin County Court

Monday February 2nd 1874

A writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Sarah H. Cor. Dec. was produced in Court and proved by the oath of E. H. Norden one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, who also proved the attestation of N. H. Cleveland the other subscribing witness, whereupon it was ordered that said will be recorded which is done.

Attest

Jas. G. Crockett, Clerk

Berry
Thos. H.

I Thomas H. Berry of the County of Clark and Town of Winchester do hereby make and execute this my last will and testament it is my will that after my death, my just debts and funeral expenses be paid.

2nd That all of the balance of my estate go to my beloved wife, Kitty Berry

Witness my hand this 23rd of Nov. 1869.
Witness Guy S. Duvall Thos. H. Berry
J. J. Randall

Franklin County Court

Monday April 6th 1874

A writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Thomas H. Berry Dec. was produced in Court and was proved by the oath of Dr. B. S. Duvall, a subscribing witness thereto, who also proved the attestation of J. J. Randall the other subscribing witness, whereupon it was ordered that said will be recorded which is done.

Attest Jas. G. Crockett

Mason P. Brown of Frankfort, Kentucky make this my last will and testament as follows, To wit:

First I direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid by my Executor hereinafter named.

Second I desire also direct that my Sister Catherine Brown be well and comfortably supported out of my estate during her life. And in consideration of the long continued and great kindness to me of my dep. Mother, Mary Cordelia Brown, I give to her the use and profits of the balance of my estate during her life, and at her death, I give and devise all of my said estate to my nephew and namesake Mason P. Brown, son of my brother, Orlando Brown.

Lastly I hereby appoint my Brother, Orlando Brown as Executor of this will.

In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this 5th day of March 1874.

Witness - L. Hood Mason P. Brown
J. S. Price

Franklin County Court

Monday May 1st 1874

A writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Mason P. Brown Dec. was produced in Court and proved by the oaths of L. Hood and J. S. Price the subscribing witnesses thereto, whereupon it was ordered that said will be recorded
which is done.

Attest

Jas. G. Crockett, Clerk

I Walter Carr White of Frankfort Kentucky, in view of the shortness of life and the certainty of death, and not knowing the time when I shall be called hence, and being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make and publish this my last will and testament in the presence and form following to wit:

I give and bequeath to my Daughter, Sallie B. Scott one thousand Dollars to be paid to her in current funds.

I give and bequeath to my two sons, Edward White and Richard D.
White, and to my Daughter, Louisa A. White, one thousand dollars each in current funds, the same to be held by my wife, Minnie S. White for their benefit, to be used in aid of their education or support, as she may think best.

I give and bequeath to my wife, Minnie S. White, all my real and personal estate (the gifts to my children named above excepted) including every thing I possessed. To have and to hold to sell and convey and to dispose of in any way that she may think best.

I Command by these clauses last named above to and to Wyllie S. White, knowing that she is a just woman, and will do what she can for their support during their minority, or until they are capable themselves

In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 5th day of September A.D. 1867.
John N. Vaughan W. S. White
W. R. Bacon

Franklin County Court
Monday July 6th 1874

A writing purporting to be the last will and testament of W. S. White Decd. was produced in Court and proved by the oaths of John N. Vaughan and W. R. Bacon the subscribing witnesses thereto, whereupon it was ordered that said will be recorded, which is done

Attest Jas. C. Crockett ckr

Pulliam
Mr. S

Be it remembered that I, William S. Pulliam of the County of Franklin and State of Kentucky being weak and infirm of body, though of sound mind and well disposing memory, having a desire to dispose of my property that God hath blessed me with, do hereby make, ordain and constitute this my last will and testament, that is, - After all my just debts and funeral expenses are paid my wish is that the residue of my property be disposed of as follows: First that my heirs be decently interred in the earth and my soul return to God who gave it. 2^d After all my debts are paid, I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Ann Pulliam all the remainder of my property both real and personal during her natural life, to use and dispose of in that way that she may think most advisable to her interest and enjoyment, and at her death (that is my wife) that all the property that is left, both real and personal to be equally divided amongst my children.

3^d My further wish is that each of my children at the division of my estate shall pay to my widow daughter, Edna Merrett for her dower. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and face my seal this 6th day of March 1874.

Test: John N. Vaughan William S. Pulliam
George W. Roberts

Franklin County Court
Monday July 6th 1874

A writing purporting to be the last will and testament of William S. Pulliam was produced in Court and proved by the oaths of John N. Vaughan and George W. Roberts the subscribing witnesses thereto, whereupon it was ordered that said will be recorded, which is done
Attest: Jas. C. Crockett ckr

Being in sound mind and health and grateful of death, I, Francis M. Taylor of Franklin Co. Ky. do make this my last will and testament. After my death I desire first that all of my just debts be paid out of my personal effects; and if my wife Mary Taylor is living, I desire and will that she the said Mary Taylor shall have all of my personal estate and realty to have and to hold during her lifetime. At her death I desire and will that of the personal and real estate remaining, all of her just debts be paid; then so much as may remain after the same shall have been paid, I desire and will that my son, Charles William Taylor become my sole heir of all personal and real estate then remaining. And if the said C. W. Taylor should be dead at that time, then I will and bequeath the same to his lawful children, to be equally divided between his said lawful children. In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my name and affixed my seal this 11th day of June one thousand eight hundred and seventy two.

In witness: Anne M. Taylor
H. M. Seefeld
W. V. Williams

Franklin County Court
Monday September 7th 1874

A writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Francis M. Taylor Decd. late of this County was produced in Court and proved by the oath of W. V. Williams one of the subscribing witnesses thereto who also proved the attestation of H. M. Seefeld the other subscribing witness, whereupon it was ordered that said will be recorded, which is done.

Attest: Jas. C. Crockett ckr

In the name of God, the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, I, Mary Proctor, now of sound mind, but suffering from a disease which I have every reason to believe will terminate in death, make this my last will and testament.

1st I revoke, and declare null and void, each and every will heretofore made by me.

2^d I will with regard to my burial of that the expense shall cost from one hundred to one hundred and fifty dollars, if the cost of the lot in Cemetery to be seventy dollars, said lot to be buried with rocks, the Cumbering to cost one dollar and fifty cents per foot.

3^d I will that on said lot a monument be erected the cost of which shall be five hundred dollars.