Church

In the name of Him who led by whom I hope to obtain everlasting life. I, William S. Church of Franklin County, Kentucky, having heretofore prepared a Will and being desirous to annul the same and make some changes that seem seemed to me to be reasonable and just and being advanced in years, but of sound mind and disposing memory and desiring to make such disposition of my estate as I believe to be proper and right, do hereby make and publish this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and annulling all other wills heretofore made by me in any manner and form following to-wit:

1. I desire that all of my just debts be paid, including my funeral expenses and the reasonable costs of administering my estate.

2. I desire that all debts and demands of every kind due me be collected by my executors hereinafter named as soon as practicable after my decease.

3. My executors hereinafter named are directed as soon after my decease as practicable to sell either at public or private sale and for the best price that can reasonably be obtained therefor all the property both real and personal which I may own at the time of my death or such reasonable time and terms as my said executors may think proper, and in selling my real estate my executors may divide the land into such convenient shape and parcels as they may deem best and sell the same either in parcels or sell the whole tracts together, whichever they may think best and my executors are authorized to make title to all of the said real estate when conveyed. When all of my debts are paid, and all debts due me collected, and all my estate converted into money as herein directed, I desire and direct my executors to dispose of the money which all of my estate may produce, as follows, viz:

4. To my daughter Emily Goram, wife of Wm. J. Goram the sum of five hundred dollars and no more. The reason I give her no more is that I have mainly supported her and her husband for at least 20 years, and have also advanced money to said Wm. J. Goram and paid debts for him, which have never been repaid to me, amounting in all to probably as much or more than I will have to give to each of my other children.

5. To my son John Robert Church I give three thousand dollars. ($3000.)

6. To my daughter Sda Church I give four thousand dollars. ($4000.)

7. To my daughter Louisa Gridley I give two thousand dollars. ($2000.)

8. After paying to Emily Goram the $500 and to John Robert Church $3000 and to Sda Church $4000 and to Louisa Gridley $2000 then all the balance of the money which may arise from my estate shall be paid over to each and all of my children in equal proportions, excepting that my daughter Emily Goram shall not receive any thing more than the $500 given to her by item 4. heretofore. It is my desire to make the gifts to my children all equal and this I have done by providing that those to whom I have already given largely shall receive no more until those who have received little or nothing are made equal to those who have already received portions of my estate; and the different amounts above given to each of my living children are intended by me to make all of them about equal sharers of my estate. The persons to whom I give my estate as herein provided and in the proportions herein set forth are Emily Goram, Catharine Moore, Franklin Church, Louisa Gridley, Rebecca Peter, John Robert Church, and Sda Church, they being my only living children. Should any of them die before I do, then that part of my estate devised to such as may so die shall go to the lawful heirs of such as may so die.

The daughter Eda is young and will have to be educated and John Robert is also young and has received less of my estate than the other children, and I have given her to Louisa Gridley, than to others of the older children, and I mention this to show the basis upon which I have attempted to equalise my children in what they have heretofore received and what they will hereafter receive under this will from my estate.

I hereby appoint my son John Robert Church and my friend John S. Goddard, as this my will, with one of whom may act with the consent of the other, and should it become necessary, I do not act alone until John Robert Church is called at full age; but each of them will give bond before entering upon the discharge of their duties.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 20th day of May A.D. 1874.

Jones Mary

In the name of God Amen, I Mary Jones of color of the City of Franklin, Kentucky being of sound mind and make and publish this my last will and Testament.

I hereby give and bequeath to my son George Williams all the right and title vested in me, which is one half of a house and lot of ground, situate and being in the City of Franklin, and which was conveyed to myself and Jim Butler, jointly by E. E. Hamill and others by Deed dated the first day of April 1868, and recorded in the Franklin County Court Office in Deed book No. 12, page 15, and if the said George Williams die without children, then and in that event I will the said property or my half of the same to my said nephew James and to his heirs forever to do with the same as he may please as his own property.

I hereby appoint George Williams as my Executor and request that he may be permitted by the Franklin County Court to act as such without requiring of him to give bond or security.

In Testimony whereof I have hereto set my hand and affixed my Seal this 20th day of May 1874.

I James Rarp of the County of Franklin and Commonwealth of Kentucky, being of sound mind and disposing memory and calling to mind the certainty of death and the uncertainty of life do make this my last will and testament in words following to wit:

First: I desire that my just debts and funeral expences be paid.

2nd: After the payment of my just debts and funeral expences I will and bequeath to my beloved wife, Eliza Rarp all my estate both real and personal during her natural life.

3rd: After the death of my wife I give to my son John Rarp, one hundred acres of land to include my dwelling house, during his natural life. If he should have a child or children, then to his child or children, but if he should die without heirs of his body then to my legal heirs.

4th: I also give to my son John Rarp, one horse, bridle and saddle, one bed and bedding.

5th: I desire after the death of my wife, all the remainder of my estate both real and personal, be equally divided between my legal heirs.
