Whittington
Wm. Smith, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby certify that the above named Wm. Smith is and was at the recording of this will and testament.

Eighth I give my wife, Susan, the Whittington seventy six acres of land lying on the north end of my farm, the line to be drawn due East and West across a line of ground at the corner of W. H. Whittington and W. H. Wilson three acre cash to ground line. I have also the fifteen or twenty acres at the south end of the land I bought of Mr. George, my wife has the power to sell the above said piece of land the proceeds of which are to pay my debts or to educate my daughter Mary E. Whittington either as my wife may choose.

Ninth I leave the remainder of my farm to the management of my wife for the mutual benefit of herself and children.

Tenth If my wife is now in the pregnant state, my will is that the property be given when she goes to that child. But in case the child dies before its mother dies, I have the power to do as she pleases with the land.

Eleventh My wife has the power to sell any or all of my personal estate as she may see fit to go to the payment of my debts or the education of my daughter Mary E. Whittington.

Twelfth The balance of my farm as herebefore mentioned I give to my daughter Mary E. Whittington to be managed by my wife for the mutual benefit of both herself and my daughter Mary E. Whittington until she (the daughter) marries. After her marriage it is my will that the husband shall manage the farm for the benefit of himself and the whole family. But that my wife retains the power to manage so much of the house as she may see fit for her own use.

Thirteenth I give my house, situate in the Whittington where I now live, both in the
