will we were called upon as witnesses to what he should say which was in words following viz that my son Augustus England should hold & lease in my Land as first agreed upon between himself and me, without distur-bance & that my wife Mary England shall hold a quiet possession of the balance of the Land during life and after her death that my son James England shall enjoy a quiet and peaceable possession of all my Land with Augustus's share (after its expiration) upon condition that he pays all my debts as witnesses our hands this
