

S. A. Vinapalim Will of Fethergill

Adam Deceased made and spoken at his Habitations in Garrard County in his last sickness the night preceding his death being the eighth day of November 1807 after calling the attention of Bailor Jennings Luke Adams and others standing by, on the subject of disposing his Estate observed as follows that I want my son John ~~to have~~ to have his mare and Coll, and the price of his coat that was sold to Mr Ballinger and a bed and furniture and such other things as I gave my other children when they left me, and one Hundred dollars and a suit of clothes and a new saddle and bridle and provision for himself and horse one year I want my Daughter Patsy to have my Brown mare and her Furniture and such other things as I gave my other children when they left me, one Hundred Dollars a suit of clothes and a complete saddle and bridle and provision for herself and horse one year I want my son John and Patsy to live with their sister Julia I want each of my children, whom I live not here to give given a Horse to have one I want the balance of my Estate to divide ^{between} ~~among~~ my children and my Daughter Peggy's children that each of my children may have an equal share and my Daughter Peggy's children to have an equal share Between them I want my son John to have my Negro boy Kara and my Daughter Patsy to have my Negro girl Betty my Daughter Polly to have my Negro boy Tom my Daughter Julia to have my Negro woman Sarah and I want Sarah to go to Julia at a good price and I think Sarah worth one Hundred Pounds I want the graveyard Post and ~~take~~ out of my Estate I want James Thompson to be my Executor

 The above words were spoken by the said Fethergill Adams whilst he was in his disposing mind as his last will and Testament
