In my dear friend I want to send this letter that I am healthy and thriving and satisfied I have been in Newport Garrison about seven months well now the Order has come that our Captain Perry Caplan has to go down to Vincennes some little more I suppose thousand forty mile and there they tell me of but one man in the Garrison and I hope that I will return from the United States Army or being there as of battle I hope that I going to long home or have laid to bed upon I thought it the great wonder that I should return from United States Army I am how-glad I am and how much I prize I would make for I be glad to see all my friend now when this letter to you let my sister Miss Maryon hear it now the company it come from Lancaster there is from men devoted out of our that come from Lancaster now Thomas Davis the other John Henderson in one night devoted in March in a few day after that there is Benjamin Lacey and David Baker devoted one night in the same month now this letter I have written by June the 3rd first sunday and next Sunday I have heard some one all start down the river and now I have seen letter that John Ramsay has send to me that the letter say I must try to send a letter to kindred share be my feather bed for I understand that (12)

he gone to Maine near fault to Duck River and now Mr. Larkin Ramsay I will be very much obligate to you if you could take in my feather bed tick and two old sheet and two blanket it and one iron bed and keep it till I ever return return from the army and if I never return from army my Will is to go to my sister for Miss Maryon the feather bed and bed cloth I remember old David Ramsay I remember old Grand Ramsay I remember John Ramsay I remember Thomas Ramsay I remember Peron Ramsay I remember all your friends
