

In the name of God, Amen,

I Benjamin Graves of the County of Green being of sound mind and memory but recollecting that is appointed to all men once to die, and being at this time very dangerously ill and low in body, do make this my last will and testament.

My Soul I commend into the hands of that merciful God who gave it, and my body to be decently buried at the discretion of my Executors hereafter to be named.

In the next place I give and bequeath unto my loving wife Mary Graves all my estate both personal and real to be disposed of at her death as she may think proper after having paid the funeral expences and every Debt which I owe.

I do also constitute and appoint my said wife my sole executrix.

I also give and bequeath unto Patey Parks my daughter and wife of Silas Parks, five shillings in addition to what she has already received; and to my daughter Dolly Price wife of William Price five shillings in addition to what she has already received.

In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and affix my seal this 6th day of January 1803
