2. Amrose Barbour Clerk of the Chancery Court and County will I Amrose Barbour Clerk of the Chancery Court and County will and healthy in body but knowing that life is uncertain, its end uncertain in the day my last will and testament, written with my hand & sealed with my seal as follows: I give and devise to my dear wife Margaret and to her heirs and assigns of my town lots number 8. 221. 222. 234. 224 of one acre each and my ten acre lot number 16 these lots being as I conceive the most valuable of any I have, the first being the lot whereon I live, the four next contain my truck patch and the last my meadow.
I likewise give and devise her all my negroes: Long Charles, Fanny, John, Henry and Richard and the increase of the females of them my household furniture & utensils, my library of books, watch and wearing apparel my riding horse and every species of my personal property to her her heirs and assigns provided nevertheless that if I die without a child or children these devises are to stand and mine to her any but if I should die having a child or children that then these devises are to be to her.

Only for life, for the use of her during life of a male support of her self and child or children and their education which I hope and expect will be amply embracing the languages and sciences and any learned profession time her or them shall choose or rather appointed of a time her or them by some persons or person she may choose. All the rest and residue of my estate real personal, mixed I give to her my said wife in like manner and to like effect. But should it so happen that I should die without her or heirs of my body I give and devise my remaining lots of ground in the town of Henderson to my brother and sisters to them their heirs and assigns to be equally divided between them, I also and signed under my hand and seal the 21st day of October 1819

I, a Codicil amendment of this my last will and testament, I revoke and annul the devise to my brother and sister believing that the devise of a few scattered lots would not be almost of any benefit to them and I revoke the said remaining lots to my wife Margaret - to her and her heirs but I devise that if my wife shall be pregnant of a child or children at the time of my death that this devise and every devise to her contained in this my will shall be for life only, provided such child or children shall come into life and then live to the age of twenty one years or be married, written with my own hand & sealed by me the 21st day 1822
