John Melroy my Advers

To all to whom these presents shall come

Be it known

That I David Hart of the Town of Vincennes and State of Indiana

have made Ordained and published, and under by these presents do make Ordain and publish this my last will and Testament, hereby revoking and Cancelling all other will or wills by me heretofore made or published.

First it is my will that all my just debts be paid as soon as possible, for which purpose I do hereby appoint my friend Jacob Ball of Vincennes and State of Indiana, and my brother William Hart of Kentucky Executors of this my last will and Testament, giving to them or either of them the power to sell and convey all or any part of my real and personal estate lying in the State of Indiana or Kentucky or elsewhere, at such times, and in such manner as they or either of them shall think most beneficial to the parties concerned.

Secondly, I wish them to pay unto Doct. William S. Webb of Williamsport County in the State of Tennessee the sum of Three hundred and thirty Dollars for money by him furnished me during my minority.

Thirdly, I do give and bequeath unto my friend Jacob Ball, my big armchair and blanket and white bed quilt.

Fourthly, I give unto my sister Susan Brown all my wearing apparel.

And fifthly I give and bequeath and devise all the rest and residue of my estate, both real and personal and immovables, wherever the same may be found (After the payment of all my debts, and the distribution of the legacies aforesaid) unto my brother William Hart in trust for the use and benefit of the Children of my said sister Susan Brown, to be applied at such times, and in such manner as he my said Brother (with the advice and consent of my said sister) shall think most to the advantage and benefit of the said Children. In Testimony whereof I have hereunto my hand and Seal this 17th day of December in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and twenty two.

I Augustus Green of Henderson County and State of Ky. having in mind the certainty of death and the uncertainty of the time of dying do make this my last will and Testament -
Item. I do hereby give to my loving wife Ann Green all my estate and personal during her life and at her Death to dispose of among my children then living under eighteen years of age and unmarried having due regard to those that need most schooling and raising. I Item. Should my said wife marry at any time my request is that the Court will make her husband give bond and good security forth with to return to my said children at my said wife's death as much property as my said wife is possessed of at the time he married her to be ascertained by commissioners appointed by the Court and on his failing to such bond and security forthwith that the Court will then have all the said estate placed in the hands of guardians for the benefit of my said children and it is my further request that my said children shall not be charged by my said wife or her husband for their board, clothing or schooling but are to be maintained out of said estate.
Item. I do hereby nominate and appoint my said wife Anna Green executrix and my Brother John Green Executor of this my will requesting the Court that as I owe but few or no debts that they will not hold them to security for their executorship and I do hereby empower them my said executor at any time to sell any part of my estate for the maintenance of my said children.
Given under my hand and seal this 16th of January 1824
