proceeds of the sale of the Executor which makes up the amount due to her $50.30.00 and leaving the value in slaves of $10160 to be divided among the twelve Heirs named in the will but subject to the provision therein that the 4 eldest children were to receive $500 each the 5 youngest ones which made the share of each of the 4 eldest children amount to $633.33 and of the 5 youngest children to $1138.33 We then proceeded to allot the negroes among the children by forming 7 lots as near the value of $633.33 as we could and placing these lots after folding them up in a hat had them drawn out by a child when the lot No 1 fell to John B. Dillingham consisting of George valued at $1100 To Samuel Langley lot No 7

These last 5 lot shares being distributed by lot like the preceding ones as many of the Devises were absent and most of the others infants - we did not take bond from those whose shares were except to be paid to them when deficient believing that the Division would be more easily & properly made equal by the division of the proceeds of the sale of personal the sale of the personal property of the estate a measure suggested and sanctioned by the Executor by whom these funds must be collected and distributed as which is respectfully submitted
