

In the fifth place I bequeath to my daughter Corinda my twenty five acres of land I purchased from Simon Lane together with the two of my lots in Evansville known by the numbers 156 and also 225

In the sixth place I bequeath to my two sons Wm. and M. Gallister and Joseph M. Gallister my son the plantation I now live on at the death of their mother and also of the remaining property at her death they be made equivalent to their elder brothers

I also bequeath to my son Samuel my lot in Evansville known by lot No 165

I also bequeath to my son John my lot in Evansville known by No 129

It is also my will and desire that my beloved wife shall have the power to will or convey any property that may be in her possession not otherwise appropriated

As my daughter Corinda's property is not now thought equivalent to her other sisters it is my will and desire that my wife shall make her equivalent to them

It is further my will and desire that if any of my children should die without lawful heirs of their body that their property shall return to their surviving heirs and be equally divided

I also appoint my son John M. Gallister to execute this my last will and Testament and it will be understood that no security is required for the performance of the same

Given under my hand and seal this twenty day of May 1831

Samuel Hopkins Attorney for William M. Keith. I also devise to my said wife Ann C. Cabell the mansion house and all the household appurtenances thereto it being my will and desire that this said tract of land of two hundred acres hereby ~~devise~~ shall be laid off in such manner as my said wife shall direct it is according to her further will and desire, and I hereby vest my wife Ann C. Cabell with full power and authority to cut and enjoy any timber she may deem proper or any wood or timber growing or in any wise belonging to the whole tract of land purchased by me as aforesaid of Genl. Samuel Hopkins Attorney for William M. Keith To Have And To Hold the said two hundred acres of land the mansion house out house and all buildings on said two hundred acres of land together with the privilege of cutting and using timber before mentioned for and during the natural life of my said wife Ann C. Cabell - In addition to the two hundred acres of land herein before devised I devise to my wife Ann C. Cabell the tract of land on which I reside to be held and enjoyed by her until my son hereinafter named shall respectively attain the age of twenty One year or shall marry and upon the happening of either of those events my said wife shall apportion to my said son as they marry or come of age an equal portion of the balance of the tract of land - If my said wife bequeath and devise to my said wife Ann C. Cabell for and during the term of her natural life the following slave Judy Jack Molly Maria Joe Elias James and Martha in addition to the slave heretofore conveyed by me to my said wife by deed of conveyance duly recorded in the County of Buckingham and State of Virginia excepting from the said slave the slave conveyed to my daughter Jane R. Allen with the consent of my said wife I give and bequeath to my said wife my Carriage and a pair of horses absolutely also all my household and kitchen furniture Stock of horses Hogs they provisions plantations situate, excepting such as my Executors may think proper to sell for and during the natural life of my said wife, a portion however of the stock and plantation intended to be given by her to my sons hereafter named as they respectively attain the age of twenty one year or marry.

I devise to my sons John B. Robert B. George M. and Richard C. Cabell and to any son I may hereafter have by my present wife Ann C. Cabell, all that tract of land herebefore mentioned purchased by me from General Samuel Hopkins, as Attorney for William M. Weather, to be equally divided between them or the survivors of them and in case of the death of either of my said sons or of any son I may hereafter have by my present wife Ann C. Cabell, leaving children the children of my said sons so dying are to have the portion of the said tract of land to which their deceased parent would have been entitled and if either of my said sons or any son I may hereafter have by my present wife Ann C. Cabell should die without leaving children, at their death then and in that case the share of my said son so dying, is to be equally divided among the surviving sons herebefore mentioned and such son as I may hereafter have by my present wife Ann C. Cabell, and the children of my said son herebefore mentioned any of any son I may hereafter have by my said wife Ann C. Cabell the children to be entitled to such portion as their deceased parent would have been entitled to. The deeds however of this tract of land so far as regards the two hundred acres devised to my wife, I do not take effect until after my wife's death. Nor are my said sons or any I may hereafter have by my wife Ann C. Cabell to have any portion of the lands herebefore mentioned until they marry or attain the age of twenty one year, as before mentioned.

I further devise to my sons John B. Robert B. George M. and Richard C. Cabell and to any son I may hereafter have by my present wife Ann C. Cabell, all the lands I may hereafter purchase or acquire, and all the lands of which I may die possessed or entitled to except my lands in Virginia to them and their heirs forever or the survivors of them, that is to say, either of my said sons herebefore mentioned before, should die without leaving children living at their death, or if any son I may hereafter have by my present wife Ann C. Cabell should die without leaving children living at their death, then and in that case, the share of my said son so dying, is to be equally divided among my surviving sons herebefore mentioned and such son as I may hereafter have by my present wife Ann C. Cabell, and the children of my said son herebefore mentioned and of any son I may hereafter have by my wife Ann C. Cabell, the children to be entitled to such portion as their deceased parent would have been entitled to. And in case of the death of either of my said sons or of any son I may hereafter have by my present wife Ann C. Cabell, leaving children, the children of my said son so dying are to have the portions to which their deceased parent would have been entitled. Having the true intent and meaning of this my last Will and Testament that all the lands I now own and am entitled to or may hereafter acquire except my lands in Virginia are to pass and be devised by this my last Will and Testament to my sons John B. Robert B. George M. and Richard C. Cabell and to such son as I may hereafter have by my wife Ann C. Cabell and to their survivors and children of those deceased as before directed, subject however to the devised herein before made to my wife Ann C. Cabell.

I devise to my son Benjamin M. S. Cabell, of the State of Virginia an Island in James River in the County of Amherst situated below Swift Island in the State of Virginia known by the name of Little Island and valuable as a Fishery To Have and To Hold the said Island with its appurtenances to the said Benjamin M. S. Cabell, his heirs and assigns forever. I further give and bequeath to the said Benjamin M. S. Cabell, the sum of One thousand Dollars in trust to be laid out in Negroes for the separate use and benefit of Sarah C. Cabell, wife of the said Benjamin M. S. Cabell for and during the term of the natural life of the said Sarah C. Cabell, and after her death to be equally divided among the children of the said Benjamin M. S. Cabell.

My further will and desire is that my executor hereafter named shall lay out the sum of Five hundred Dollars in the purchase of Negroes and shall convey the Negroes so purchased to my Daughter Sophronisa C. Grayson for her separate use and benefit during her natural life, and after her death the said Negroes to be equally divided among the children of my said Daughter Sophronisa C. Grayson.

In case of the death of the said Sophronista Grayson before my death then it is my will and desire that the said sum of Five hundred Dollars shall be laid out in the purchase of negroes and the negroes so purchased be equally divided among the children of the said Sophronista Grayson. I give and bequeath to my son Edward B. Cabell the sum of One hundred Dollars, to give and bequeath to my Grandson Joseph Cabell hereafter the sum of One hundred Dollars. I devise to my Executor and Executors hereafter named John B. Cabell and my wife Ann E. Cabell all my lands in the State of Virginia except the land devised to Benjamin M. S. Cabell, with full power and authority to them or the survivor to sell said lands, receive the purchase money, make all proper conveyances and grant proper receipts and acquittances for the purchase money, and to hold the said purchase money in trust for the use and purpose hereinafter declared.

I give bequeath and devise to my Executor and Executors John B. Cabell and Ann E. Cabell, all the negroes I now have and own or may hereafter acquire and do propose of also all my money, debts and personal estate whatsoever which I now have or may hereafter acquire or be entitled to or propose of at the time of my death to have and hold all my said negroes, slaves, money, debts and personal estate whatsoever in trust for the following use and purpose. Subject however to the bequests and devises herein before made and mentioned that is to say that the said John B. Cabell and Ann E. Cabell are to divide the negroes and money and debts equally among the said John B. Cabell, Robert D. George W. and Richard C. Cabell my sons and my daughters Mary Ann E. Cabell Jane E. Allen and Elizabeth C. Pollard and such sons and daughters as I may hereafter have by my wife Ann E. Cabell. I having the true intention and meaning of this my last will and testament that all my negroes, money, debts and personal estate whatsoever now owned or hereafter acquired shall be equally divided among the sons and daughters I now have by my present wife Ann E. Cabell or, hereafter have by my said wife in such division however whatever has been received or may hereafter be received by either of my said sons or daughters is to be taken into consideration and only so much allotted to them as will in addition to what they have received make their portions equal.

It is further my will and desire that all my negroes, slaves, money, debts and personal property herein conveyed in trust to the said John B. Cabell and Ann E. Cabell shall be held and enjoyed by my wife Ann E. Cabell until my sons and daughters by the said Ann E. Cabell or which I may hereafter have by the said Ann E. Cabell shall marry or attain the age of twenty one year and as the said sons and daughters which I now have or may hereafter have by the said Ann E. Cabell shall respectively marry or attain the age of twenty one year they are to receive an equal portion of my negroes, money, debts and personal estate devised in trust as aforesaid the sons to receive their portion as their absolute property that my trustees and Executor and Executors aforesaid are to convey to the daughter I now have or may hereafter have by the said Ann E. Cabell their portion of the negroes and such negroes as can be purchased by said daughter portion of the money, debts and personal estate by said trustees, for and during the term of their natural life and after their death to be equally divided among the children of my said daughters herein intended to be provided for, and the said John B. Cabell and Ann E. Cabell are hereby vested with full power and authority to convey in trust in such manner as they shall deem proper all the negroes and other property which may belong to the daughters and the property which they may purchase with the daughter's portion of money, which they are hereby authorized to do so as to secure to themselves and the benefit of the daughters I now have or may hereafter have by the said Ann E. Cabell during their natural life their respective portions of the property devised in trust, and after their death to be equally divided among their respective children. And no child any of said daughters intended to be provided for should die without children then the portion of those thus dying to be equally divided among my surviving sons and daughters by the said Ann E. Cabell.

It is further my will and desire that my wife Ann E. Cabell is to maintain and educate my children by her. It is the true intent and meaning of this my last will and testament that my daughters before mentioned are to receive no portion of the lands now owned by me or which I may hereafter acquire if however my Executor should be unable to sell my lands in Virginia within five years from the time of my death, my will and desire is and I do devise the said lands in Virginia to be equally divided among the sons and daughters I now have or may hereafter have by my said wife Ann E. Cabell the money arising from
