Robert Easley
last will

I Robert Easley being of sound mind and memory, do make and ordain this my last will and testament - Feeling anxious to dispose of my worldly goods or property which it hath pleased almighty God bless me - in the manner and way that I think most fit and advisable -

(1st) I give and bequeath to my daughter Powna two negroes namely Amelia and Jane one horse and saddle and one feather Bed and furniture to her and her heirs forever -

(2nd) I give and bequeath to my son Robert one hundred acres land lying on the Ohio River adjoining Evans Lambert. Also one negro boy named Phil, one horse and saddle, and one feather Bed and furniture so soon as he becomes of lawful age or marries to him this third form

I give and bequeath to my son John Easter, One Negro girl named Mary, One horse and saddle also one feather bed furniture, and five hundred dollars so soon as he becomes of lawful age or marries to him and his heirs forever. I give and bequeath to my daughter Mary Eliza two Negroes namely Amy and Mary Ann One horse and saddle and one feather bed furniture to her and her heirs forever. I give and bequeath to my son James Eliza One Negro boy named Rutherford and one equal undivided half of the tract of land I now live on, One horse and saddle and one feather bed and furniture to him and his heirs forever. I give and bequeath to my son Joseph Perry two Negroes Rachel and her child Harriet and the undivided half of the tract of land on which I now live also one horse and saddle and one feather bed and furniture to him and his heirs forever. It is to be understood that these infants require their portions until they arrive at lawful age or marries. It is my will that all and singular the residue of my property not heretofore specified (be it the death or intermarriage of my wife) equally divided among my five children as heretofore stated to them and their heirs forever. I have unto my wife during her natural life or widowhood all the residue of my estate real and personal not heretofore given to be kept together with the infants children to be used for the purpose of educating and educating said infants and further should either of the said infants predecease then the bequest of said property passes to the living specified for them to receive it, that they shall be reimbursed out of the said residue as above mentioned provides to an equal division in such way and manner as my Executor and Executors shall think equitable and best. Lastly it is my will and desire and I hereby declare constitute and appoint my son in law Anthony Lambert and my wife Elizabeth my Executor and Executrix of this my last will and Testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 5 day of July 1822

In the name of God Amen. I William Gibson of Summers County and state of Kentucky, being of perfect sound memory, do hereby make this my last will and Testament hereby declaring and confirming the same. First I recommend my soul to that God from whence it came hoping in a full pardon of all its offences against his holy law and a full enjoyment of eternal felicity hereafter. Lastly - It is my desire that all my just debts be paid. I give my son Hugh Gibson nearly three acres of land lying on both creeks being the one half of the tract purchased of Sumner Denton and four Negroes by the name of Henry Andy, Nancy and Kitty and all my stock of horses, cattle, sheep & hogs and all my household and kitchen furniture except one bed and furniture and my crop that is now growing and all my penitential articles. Next - I give to my daughter Martha Pruitt two Negroes by the name of Betty and Hannah and two beds and furniture. Next - I give to my daughter Ellen Cantle One Negro by the name of Amy and her bed and furniture. Next - I give my son George McCormack Gibson One Negro by the name of portions and one bed and furniture and one horse saddle and bridle and one half of the money that is owing to me from Robert McCormack Esq. of Virginia. Next - I give to my grand daughter Elizabeth Pruitt the other half of my money that is in the hands of Robert McCormack Esq. of Virginia. I appoint my son Hugh Gibson my executor. Now comes my hand and seal this twenty seventh day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty two.
